If CSC redeems the Junior Subordinated Notes, the redemption price will be 100% of the principal amount to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest through the date of redemption, in the case of any redemption:

in whole or in part on November 15, 2017;

in whole but not in part at any time within 90 days of the occurrence of certain changes relating to the capital treatment of, or investment company laws relating to, the Trust Preferred Securities;

in whole but not in part at any time after November 15, 2017 and within 90 days of the occurrence of certain changes relating to the tax treatment of, or the rating agency equity credit accorded to, the Trust Preferred Securities; or in whole or in part at any time on or after November 15, 2037.

In all other cases: the redemption price will be the Make-Whole Redemption Price, which will be the greater of:

100% of the principal amount of junior subordinated notes being redeemed; and an amount calculated as follows:

- Ø in the case of a redemption prior to November 15, 2017, the sum of the present values of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes and each interest payment on the junior subordinated notes that would have been payable from the date of redemption to and including November 15, 2017 (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued as of the date of redemption), discounted from November 15, 2017 or the applicable interest payment date to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at a discount rate equal to the treasury rate plus the applicable spread; and

- Ø in the case of a redemption after November 15, 2017 and prior to, but not including November 15, 2037, the sum of the present values of the principal amount of the junior subordinated notes and each interest payment on the junior subordinated notes that would have been payable from the date of redemption to and including November 15, 2037, assuming that the junior subordinated notes accrue interest at a rate equal to the interest rate applicable to the immediately preceding interest period (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued as of the date of redemption), discounted from November 15, 2037 or the applicable interest payment date to the redemption date on a quarterly basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at a discount rate equal to the three-month LIBOR rate applicable to the immediately preceding interest period minus the applicable spread; plus in each case accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption.

For these purposes, applicable spread means:

in the case of a redemption of all outstanding junior subordinated notes prior to November 15, 2017 within 90 days after the occurrence of a tax event or rating agency event, 0.50%;

in the case of any other redemption prior to November 15, 2017, 0.50%; and in the case of a redemption after November 15, 2017 and prior to November 15, 2037, 0.15%.
