Any such statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part hereof.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The corporation laws of Canada and the by-laws of Cott Corporation include provisions designed to provide for the indemnity of the corporation's officers and directors against certain liabilities. These provisions are designed to encourage qualified individuals to serve as officers and directors of Cott Corporation.

Under the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), a corporation may indemnify a director or officer of the corporation, a former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity.

The CBCA permits indemnification and monetary advances only if the indemnifiable person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the corporation's request, and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing the individual's conduct was lawful. An indemnifiable person is entitled to the indemnity if, in addition to the foregoing, such indemnifiable person was not adjudged by a court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the indemnifiable person ought to have done. With the approval of the court, a corporation may also indemnify an indemnifiable person in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation, or other entity, to which the indemnifiable person is made a party because of the indemnifiable person's association with the corporation or other entity.

Sections 7.02 to 7.04 of Cott Corporation's by-laws provide, without in any manner derogating from or limiting the mandatory provisions of the CBCA but subject to the conditions contained therein, for the indemnity of Cott Corporation's directors or officers, former directors or officers, or a person who acts or acted at Cott Corporation's request as a director or officer or in a similar capacity of another entity substantially in accordance with the provisions set out in the CBCA.

Section 7.05 of the corporation's by-laws states that subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA, Cott Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers as such, as the board may from time to time determine.

In addition, Cott Corporation has entered into indemnification agreements with certain directors and officers which embody, in all material respects, the indemnity provisions contained in the CBCA and Cott Corporation's by-laws and subject to the limitations contained therein.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offering herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
