Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 15, 2011, RSC Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with United Rentals, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Purchaser), pursuant to which the Company will be merged with and into Purchaser (the Merger), with Purchaser continuing as the surviving corporation of the Merger. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the boards of directors of both the Company and Purchaser.

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, no par value (the Company Common Shares), of the Company issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger (other than shares owned by (i) the Company, Purchaser or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company or Purchaser and (ii) stockholders who have perfected and not withdrawn a demand for appraisal rights under Delaware law) will be automatically converted into the right to receive $10.80 in cash and 0.2783 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value (the Purchaser Common Shares), of Purchaser, in each case without interest. In addition, at the effective time of the Merger, the size of Purchaser's board of directors will be increased to 14 directors and three of the Company's current independent directors designated by the Company will be appointed to Purchaser's board of directors.

Immediately following consummation of the Merger, Purchaser will cause each of RSC Holdings III, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and United Rentals (North America), Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Purchaser, to merge with and into a newly formed Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Purchaser (U Newco) in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law (the Subsequent Mergers), with U Newco continuing as the surviving corporation of the Subsequent Mergers.

Stockholders of the Company will be asked to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement at a special meeting that will be held on a date to be announced. Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including without limitation: (i) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Company Common Shares entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement, (ii) the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Purchaser Common Shares entitled to vote on the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval by the holders of a majority of the outstanding Purchaser Common Shares entitled to vote on the issuance of Purchaser Common Shares in connection with the Merger (the Purchaser Share Issuance) present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting of Purchaser stockholders held to vote on such matters, (iii) the expiration or termination of the waiting period applicable to the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (iv) either (A) Purchaser's receipt of an advance ruling certificate from the Commissioner of Competition (the Commissioner) under the Competition Act (Canada) (the Competition Act) in respect of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or (B) the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Competition Act, and Purchaser shall have received a no-action letter from the Commissioner advising Purchaser that the Commissioner does not intend to make an application under Section 92 of the Competition Act for an order in respect of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (v) the absence of any law, order or injunction prohibiting the Merger, (vi) the approval for listing on the New York Stock Exchange of the Purchaser Common Shares to be issued in the Merger, (vii) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by Purchaser in connection with the Purchaser Share Issuance, (viii) the receipt of an opinion relating to solvency of the surviving corporation and (ix) the absence of any suit, action or proceeding by any governmental entity seeking a restraining order that would be reasonably likely to result in criminal sanctions against any party to the Merger Agreement or any of their respective affiliates, directors or employees. In addition, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including without limitation: (w) the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), (x) the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), including the other party's agreement not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, and, subject to certain exceptions, not to engage in discussions or negotiations regarding alternative acquisition proposals, (y) the non-occurrence of a material adverse effect on the other party and (z) the receipt of an opinion regarding certain tax matters relating to the Merger.

The Company has made customary representations and warranties to Purchaser in the Merger Agreement. The Company has also entered into certain customary covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement, including without limitation covenants regarding: (i) the conduct of the business of the Company prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the calling and holding of a meeting of the Company's stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders and (iii) the use of the Company's reasonable best efforts to cause the consummation of the Merger. Purchaser has made certain representations and warranties to the Company in the Merger Agreement. Purchaser has also entered into certain covenants and agreements in the Merger Agreement, including without limitation covenants regarding: (i) the conduct of the business of Purchaser prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the calling and holding of a meeting of Purchaser's stockholders for the purpose of obtaining the approval of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Purchaser Share Issuance by Purchaser's stockholders and (iii) the use of Purchaser's reasonable best efforts to cause the consummation of the Merger.

From the date of the Merger Agreement until the earlier of the effective time of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, the Company is subject to customary no-shop restrictions on its ability to solicit alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and to provide information to and engage in discussions with third parties regarding alternative acquisition proposals. Purchaser is also subject to similar no-shop provisions but those restrictions will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the date that Purchaser's stockholders approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the Purchaser Share Issuance and (ii) termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms. The no-shop provisions applicable to each of the Company and Purchaser are subject to customary fiduciary-out provisions which allow the Company and Purchaser under certain circumstances to provide information to and participate in discussions with third parties with respect to unsolicited alternative acquisition proposals that the board of directors of the Company or Purchaser, as applicable, has reasonably determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) would result in a transaction more favorable to such party's stockholders from a financial point of view than the Merger and is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms. Further, subject to compliance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, the board of directors of the Company or Purchaser, as applicable, is entitled to change its recommendation to its stockholders in response to an intervening event or the receipt of a superior proposal.

The Company and Purchaser are permitted under certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement, including in the event that, among others, the other party breaches its no-shop obligations or under certain limited circumstances to enter into a superior proposal. In connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, either party may be required to pay the other party a termination fee of $60 million plus expenses up to a maximum of $20 million (collectively, the Reimbursable Expenses), including in the event that (i) the other party's board of directors withdraws or qualifies its recommendation in favor of the Merger, (ii) the other party's board of directors fails to recommend against any third party tender or exchange offer, (iii) the other party accepts a superior proposal, (iv) the other party has breached its no-shop obligations under the Merger Agreement, or (v) (A) an alternative acquisition proposal is made to the other party, (B) the other party's stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement at a stockholders meeting, and (C) the other party enters into a definitive agreement with respect to or consummates an alternative acquisition proposal or the other party's board of directors approves, recommends or does not oppose an alternative acquisition proposal, within one year after termination of the Merger Agreement. In the event that either party terminates the Merger Agreement for failure of a party's stockholders to approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement, the party whose stockholders failed to so approve the adoption of the Merger Agreement will be required to reimburse the other party's Reimbursable Expenses. Further, if the Company terminates the Merger Agreement due to Purchaser's failure to consummate the Merger on the date the closing should have occurred in accordance with the Merger Agreement or either party terminates the Merger Agreement due to the failure of the third party valuation firm to deliver an opinion with respect to the solvency of the surviving corporation, and in either case all of the other conditions to Purchaser's obligations to consummate the Merger have been satisfied, then Purchaser will be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $107.5 million plus the Company's Reimbursable Expenses, unless Purchaser's failure to consummate the Merger resulted from the Company's failure to provide certain information required to be provided by it under the Merger Agreement in connection with Purchaser's financing for the Merger.

Under the Merger Agreement, the Company has reserved the right of its board of directors to award up to an aggregate amount of $5.2 million in bonuses to certain executives, including the Company's named executive officers, between the date of the Merger Agreement and the closing of the Merger. At present, the board of directors of the Company has not determined the amount of the bonus pool to be allocated in the aggregate or the individual employees who will be entitled to participate.

Contemporaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Purchaser entered into a voting agreement (the Voting Agreement) with each of OHCP II RSC, LLC, OHCMP II RSC, LLC and OHCP II RSC COI, LLC (collectively, the Oak Hill Stockholders) covering all Company Common Shares held of record or beneficially owned by the Oak Hill Stockholders. The Oak Hill Stockholders hold approximately 33.4% of the issued and outstanding Company Common Shares as of December 15, 2011, the last trading day before announcement of the transaction. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, the Oak Hill Stockholders have agreed to, among other things, vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and against any competing takeover proposals, subject to the limitations set forth in the Voting Agreement. The Voting Agreement will terminate upon the earliest to occur of (a) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement, (b) the date of any modification of the Merger Agreement that reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration to be paid to the Company's stockholders in connection with the Merger and (c) the effective time of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement is filed as an exhibit to this Form 8-K to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual or financial information about the Company, Purchaser or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement; were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement; have been qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts; and are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement that may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Purchaser or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company and Purchaser. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the companies and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the joint proxy statement/prospectus forming a part of the registration statement on Form S-4 that Purchaser will be filing in connection with the Merger, as well as in the other filings that each of the Company and Purchaser make with the SEC.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

The disclosure regarding the discretionary management bonus pool set forth in Item 1.01 of this Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendments to Executive Employment Agreements.

Effective as of December 16, 2011, the employment agreements for each of Erik Olsson, Patricia Chiodo, Juan Corsillo, Phillip Hobson and David Ledlow were amended to provide for the following:

Section 280G Best of Cutback. If any payment to be made under the executive's employment agreement or any other agreement or benefit arrangement would be subject to golden parachute excise taxes imposed as a result Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, the payments to the executive will be reduced in order to limit or avoid the golden parachute excise tax if and to the extent such reduction would produce an expected better after-tax result for the executive. The executives' outstanding equity award agreements contain a similar provision. Prior to the amendment, the employment agreements for Erik Olsson, Phillip Hobson and David Ledlow did not contain a provision addressing such excise taxes.

Increased Change in Control Severance for Patricia Chiodo and Juan Corsillo. Under the amended employment agreements for Patricia Chiodo and Juan Corsillo, if the executive's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason (each as defined in the current employment agreements) upon or within twelve months following a Change in Control (as defined in the Company's Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan), the Severance Period (as defined in the current employment agreements) will be extended from 18 months to 24 months. The current employment agreements provide for 24-month post-termination noncompetition and nonsolicitation provisions, which remain unchanged.

Minimum Notice Periods for Change in Control Terminations. Under the amended employment agreements for Patricia Chiodo and Juan Corsillo, the Company will be required to give a minimum of 30-days advance notice of a termination of employment without cause following a Change in Control. Prior to the amendment, the employment agreements for Ms. Chiodo and Mr. Corsillo provided for a discretionary notice period.

Other Amendments. Other amendments to the employment agreements are intended to comply with current tax and health care laws, and to conform certain provisions to the current practices of the Company.

The form of amendment to the employment agreements is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
