This Amendment No. 1 (this Amendment) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO (as amended and together with any subsequent amendments and supplements thereto, the Schedule TO), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on November 2, 2016 by Project Echo Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation (the Purchaser), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Ziff Davis, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Parent) and a wholly-owned subsidiary of j2 Global, Inc., a Delaware corporation (j2). The Schedule TO relates to the offer by the Purchaser to purchase all of the outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Shares), of Everyday Health, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Everyday Health), at a purchase price of $10.50 per share, net to the seller in cash, without interest, subject to any withholding of taxes required by applicable law, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the offer to purchase dated November 2, 2016 (the Offer to Purchase), and in the related letter of transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal), copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibits (a)(1)(A) and (a)(1)(B), respectively, which Offer to Purchase and Letter of Transmittal, together with any amendments or supplements thereto, collectively constitute the Offer .

The information in the Offer to Purchase and the Letter of Transmittal is incorporated in this Amendment by reference to all of the applicable items in the Schedule TO, except that such information is amended and supplemented to the extent specifically provided in this Amendment. Capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined in this Amendment shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Offer to Purchase or in the Schedule TO, as applicable.

Amendments to the Offer to Purchase

Item 11. Additional Information.

Item 5 of the Schedule TO and the disclosure under Section 11 Background of the Offer; Past Contacts, Negotiations and Transactions of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended as follows:

The date referenced in the 18th paragraph of such Section 11 is changed from September 1, 2015 to September 1, 2016 .

Item 11 of the Schedule TO and the disclosure under Section 15 Certain Legal Matters; Antitrust Matters of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended by replacing the second, third and fourth paragraphs of such Section 15 in their entirety with the following:

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, on October 27, 2016, Parent (on behalf of j2) and Everyday Health filed with the FTC and the DOJ a Notification and Report Form for Certain Mergers and Acquisitions under the HSR Act (the HSR Filing) in connection with the purchase of the Shares in the Offer and the Merger. On November 14, 2016, attorneys for Parent and Everyday Health received notice that the FTC granted early termination of the applicable waiting period. Accordingly, the condition to the Offer relating to the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act has been satisfied.

Even though the requisite waiting period under the HSR Act has been terminated, at any time before or after Purchaser's acceptance for payment of Shares pursuant to the Offer, if the FTC believes that the Offer would violate the U.S. federal antitrust laws by substantially lessening competition in any line of commerce affecting U.S. consumers, the FTC has the authority to challenge the transaction by seeking a federal court order enjoining the transaction or, if Shares have already been acquired, requiring disposition of such Shares, or the divestiture of assets of Parent, Everyday Health or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The DOJ, U.S. state attorneys general and private persons may also bring legal action under the U.S. federal antitrust laws. While Parent believes that the consummation of the Offer will not violate any U.S. federal antitrust law, there can be no assurance that a challenge to the Offer on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if a challenge is made, what the result will be.

Item 11 of the Schedule TO and the disclosure under Section 17 Legal Proceedings of the Offer to Purchase are hereby amended and supplemented by replacing the disclosure contained in such Section 17 in its entirety with the following:

Between November 11, 2016 and November 15, 2016, three putative class action lawsuits were filed on behalf of the public stockholders of Everyday Health (captioned Means v. Everyday Health, Inc., et al., No. 1:16-cv-08768; Jordan v. Everyday Health, Inc., et al., No. 1:16-cv-08836; and Hanson v. Everyday Health, Inc., et al., No. 1:16-cv-08847) in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against Everyday Health, members of the Everyday Health Board (the Individual Defendants) and, in one case, Parent, Purchaser and j2. The complaints generally allege that the defendants violated Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), by issuing a Schedule 14D-9 that was materially misleading and omitted material facts related to, including, among other things, background of the proposed transactions, data and inputs underlying the financial valuation exercises that support the opinion provided by Qatalyst, and Everyday Health's financial projections relied upon by Qatalyst. The complaints also allege that the Individual Defendants violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, as controlling persons who had the ability to prevent the Schedule 14D-9 from being materially false and misleading. In addition, one complaint alleges that the Individual Defendants violated their fiduciary duties of care, loyalty, good faith and candor owed to Everyday Health stockholders by, among other things, failing to take reasonable steps to obtain or ensure that Everyday Health stockholders receive adequate consideration for their stock, agreeing to restrictive deal protection devices that allegedly deter other suitors from making a superior bid for Everyday Health and causing an allegedly materially incomplete and misleading Schedule 14D-9 to be filed with the SEC. Further, such complaint alleges that Everyday Health, Parent, Purchaser and j2 aided and abetted the Individual Defendants' alleged breaches of fiduciary duties. The actions seek, among other things, an injunction against the consummation of the proposed transactions, the imposition of a constructive trust, in favor of the plaintiff and the class, upon any benefits improperly received by the defendants or the award of rescissory damages, and the award of costs and disbursements for the actions, including reasonable attorneys' and experts' fees. The defendants believe that the allegations in the complaints lack any merit and intend to defend vigorously against the actions.
