The following is a letter from Post Holdings, Inc. management to employees of Bob Evans Farms, Inc. on September 20, 2017.

September 20, 2017

Dear Bob Evans colleagues,

On behalf of everyone at Post Holdings, I want to let you know how excited we are about the prospect of working together with you. We are longtime fans of Bob Evans and the extraordinary reputation you have built with retail and foodservice customers and consumers across the country. We look forward to getting to know you even better and learning from you in the years ahead.

While our companies are obviously different, I have been struck by how much Bob Evans and Post have in common deeply held values, long histories of innovation and service, strong Midwestern roots and a passion for making nutritious and affordable food that consumers love. I am confident that by combining our leading operations, stellar people and cherished brands, we will bring together two great companies and exceptional product portfolios to create an even stronger offering across markets, categories and regions.

While it is premature to begin looking at specific plans for a combined company, I want you to know that Post is firmly committed to Bob Evans' continued growth. We are focused on investing in the business for the long-term and maintaining the company's exceptional brands.

I am also pleased that Mike Townsley has agreed to take on a critical leadership role in our combined company, once this transaction is completed. We look forward to our shared company benefiting from his expertise and yours.

I hope to have the opportunity to meet many of you in person in the near future, and invite you to visit us online to learn a bit more about Post Holdings, our portfolio of products and our commitments to company and supplier responsibility at www.postholdings.com.

Best regards,

Rob Vitale

President and CEO, Post Holdings

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this letter are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are made based on known events and circumstances at the time of release, and as such, are subject to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. These statements may be identified from the use of forward-looking terminology such as anticipates, believes, may, should, could, continues, plans, forecasts, estimates, projects, predicts, would, intends, anticipates, expects, the negative of these terms and similar expressions, and include all statements regarding future performance, earnings projections, events or developments. There is no assurance that the acquisition of Bob Evans by Post will be consummated and there are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements made herein. The risks and uncertainties in connection with such forward-looking statements related to the proposed transaction include, but are not limited to, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could delay the closing of the proposed transaction; the possibility of non-consummation of the proposed transaction and termination of the merger agreement; the ability and timing to obtain the approval of Bob Evans' stockholders and required regulatory approvals and to satisfy other closing conditions to the merger agreement; the risk that stockholder litigation in connection with the proposed transaction may affect the timing or occurrence of the proposed transaction or result in significant costs of defense, indemnification and liability; adverse effects on Post's common stock or Bob Evans' common stock because of the failure to complete the proposed transaction; Post's or Bob Evans' respective businesses experiencing disruptions from ongoing business operations due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors making it more difficult than expected to maintain relationships with employees, business partners or governmental entities, both before and following consummation of the transaction; Post and Bob Evans being unable to promptly and effectively implement integration strategies and obtain expected cost savings and synergies within the expected timeframe; Post's ability to retain certain key employees at Bob Evans; significant transaction costs which have been and may continue to be incurred related to the proposed transaction; and other risks and uncertainties described in Post's and Bob Evans' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Post and Bob Evans caution readers not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements represent Post's and Bob Evans' judgment as of the date of this letter, and Post and Bob Evans undertake no obligation to update or revise them unless otherwise required by law.
