NOVATION OF PURCHASE RIGHTS IN RELATION TO THREE BOEING B737-800 AIRCRAFT

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 14.36 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

Reference is made to the announcement dated 9 July 2015 of China Eastern Airlines Corporation Limited (the Company) in relation to the Purchase Agreement entered into between the Company and Boeing Company on 9 July 2015, pursuant to which, the Company purchased fifty brand new Boeing B737 Series Aircraft (the Boeing Aircraft) from Boeing Company, as well as the announcements dated 22 December 2017 and 21 February 2019 of the Company (together with the announcement of the Company dated 9 July 2015 stated above, referred as the Announcements) in relation to the Framework Lease Agreement entered into between the Company and CES International Financial Leasing Corporation Limited (CES Leasing), pursuant to which, CES Leasing Group agreed to provide operating leasing to the Group in relation to the Aircraft and Aircraft Engines.

Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms used in this announcement shall have the same meanings with those defined in the Announcements by the Company.

In order to further enhance the asset management of the Company and lower debt level denominated in US dollars, foreign exchange risks and depreciation risks of future aircraft of the Company, the Company proposed a public tender for the novation of purchase rights and operating leasing of three B737-800 aircraft among the Boeing Aircraft (the Three Aircraft) which have not been introduced. Upon comprehensive assessment, the operating leasing proposal relating to aircraft and engines (including rental standards and conditions of lease termination) offered by CES Leasing Group was better than the operating leasing proposals offered by other parties. On 12 April 2019, the Company, CES Leasing Group and Boeing Company entered into a series of agreement and confirmations (the Relevant Documents), pursuant to which, from the effective date of the Relevant Documents, the corresponding rights and obligations of the Company under the Purchase Agreement in relation to the Three Aircraft will cease and the Company will no longer be required to bear the corresponding rights and obligations in relation to the Three Aircraft. CES Leasing Group will bear the corresponding rights and obligations in relation to the Three Aircraft pursuant to the Relevant Documents. Before the Three Aircraft are delivered, CES Leasing Group would settle the related payment in respect of the Three Aircraft to Boeing Company in one lump sum and Boeing Company would refund to the Company the related deposits previously paid by the Company in one lump sum.

On the same date, the Company entered into an aircraft leasing agreement with CES Leasing Group, pursuant to which, the Company has agreed to lease the Three Aircraft from CES Leasing Group under operating leases.

The Board considers that the novation of purchase rights in relation to the Three Aircraft will not have any material adverse effects on the existing businesses and financial position of the Group.

By order of the Board
