Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

In the proxy statement for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Diebold, Incorporated (the "Company"), the Company disclosed that it has established standards for determining director independence and that such standards reflect exactly the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") director independence standards as currently in effect. On October 3, 2006, the NYSE informed the Company that Section 303A.02(a) of the NYSE Listed Company Manual requires that all of the Company's director independence standards be included in the Company's annual proxy statement. While the Company specifically disclosed the NYSE director independence standards in its proxy statement, it did not include two additional independence standards that had also been adopted by the Company. Despite the Company's belief that the disclosure in the proxy statement for its 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders was not materially different from what is required by the NYSE Listed Company Manual, after consultation with the NYSE, the Company has decided to set forth these two additional standards in this current report on Form 8-K. The Company's standards for determining director independence that were not previously disclosed in its proxy statement are as follows:

- he or she has not engaged in a transaction with the Company for which the Company has been or will be required to make a disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K of the Securities Exchange Commission as currently in effect: and
- he or she has no other material relationship with the Company, either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company.
