Amendment to Annual Incentive Program

National Instruments Corporation (“NI” or the “Company”) maintains an annual incentive cash bonus program (the “AIP”) for its executives (other than Dr. James J. Truchard, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer), Business and Technology Fellows and Research and Development Fellows. On February 18, 2012, the Compensation Committee approved amendments to the AIP. Under the amended AIP, the Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion and at any time, (i) reduce or eliminate a participant’s target or actual award and/or (ii) reduce or eliminate the amount allocated to the bonus pool for all participants. The Compensation Committee may determine the amount of any reduction on the basis of such factors as it deems relevant in its discretion. Under the amended AIP, NI’s President may take the same actions with respect to AIP awards to non-executive Vice Presidents, Business and Technology Fellows and Research and Development Fellows. The amended AIP also provides that the bonus amounts of 30% of salary (or, in the case of the Senior Vice President of Sales, 30% of salary plus targeted commission) for Executive Vice Presidents and Senior Vice Presidents and 20% of salary for Vice Presidents, Business and Technology Fellows and Research and Development Fellows will now be considered targets rather than maximums. Therefore, it is now possible under the AIP for participants to earn bonuses of less than, equal to, or more than these specified target percentages.
