PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Management of Federal Trust Corporation (the "Registrant") has determined that the Registrant is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2009 ("Quarterly Report") by the due date of March 31, 2009 and it is not expected that the Registrant will be able to make that filing within the five-day extension permitted by the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

As disclosed in prior filings with the SEC, the Registrant is subject to restrictions on its operations imposed by the Office of Thrift Supervision (the "OTS") under federal banking regulatory laws and regulations. The Registrant has received the approvals required to engage an accounting firm or consultant to assist with the preparation of the financial information required to prepare the financial statements and other financial information required for the preparation of the Quarterly Report. However, the Registrant does not believe that it will be able to complete the work required to file the Quarterly Report on a timely basis. The Registrant does not believe that it will be able to file the Quarterly Report until such time as it is able to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Year Ended December 31, 2008 with the SEC, and, until such time as it is able to complete the work required to file the Quarterly Report, cannot predict with accuracy the results of operations for the quarter ended March 31, 2009..
