Press Release

CVRD and Shougang sign a contract for the supply of 11.3 million tons of iron ore

Rio de Janeiro, September 14, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the largest iron ore producer in the world, signed a long term contract with Shougang Group (Shougang), one of the largest steelmakers in China, to supply 11.3 million tons of iron ore from 2004 to 2012. The contract was signed in Rio de Janeiro, by Roger Agnelli, CVRD CEO, and Zhu Jimin, Chairman of the Shougang Board of Directors, who came to Brazil especially for this purpose.

CVRD already had an iron ore supply contract with Shougang to provide 4.4 million tons from 2004 to 2008. With this additional contract, CVRD and Shougang establish a commitment of 15.7 million tons of iron ore between 2004 and 2012.

Long term contracts signed between CVRD and its clients support the Company's investment efforts in iron ore capacity expansion, and at the same time, eliminate risks of raw material shortage for the steelmaking industry.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
