CVRD's Wholly-owned Subsidiary Vale Overseas Announces Debt Tender Offer

Rio de Janeiro, December 1, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) informs that its wholly-owned subsidiary Vale Overseas Limited has commenced a cash tender offer for its Notes due 2007.

Rationale for the transaction:

CVRD is taking advantage of its strong cash flow generation, solid balance sheet and financial position to repurchase the Notes due 2007.

With this transaction, CVRD is acquiring a financial obligation in the global capital markets which does not reflect pure CVRD credit, as the Notes due 2007 have credit enhancement. A benefit of this transaction is therefore to allow market participants to focus solely on the analysis of the Company's solid financial position.

By reducing further its debt level, CVRD is also strengthening its balance sheet.

The efforts to enhance even further CVRD's solid financial position are consistent with the Company's pursuit of the investment grade rating.

Information pertaining to the repurchase:

Vale Overseas Limited has commenced a cash tender offer for any and all of its $300 million outstanding aggregate principal amount of Vale Overseas 8.625% Enhanced Guaranteed Notes due 2007 (CUSIP Nos.: 91911TAB9, 91911TAA1 and G9317UAA3). The offer is made upon the terms, and subject to the conditions, set forth in the offer to purchase dated December 1, 2004.

The purchase price for each $1,000 principal amount of securities validly tendered and not validly withdrawn pursuant to the offer shall be the price (calculated as described in the offer to purchase) equal to the present value on the settlement date for the offer of $1,000 principal amount of the securities and the present value of the interest payments due on such principal amount from the last interest payment date until the maturity date, determined on the basis of a yield to the maturity date equal to the sum of (x) the bid-side yield (as quoted on Bloomberg PX1 on the price determination date at 2:00 p.m. New York City time) of the United States Treasury 2.875% Notes due November 30, 2006 plus (y) a fixed spread of 18 basis points (such price being rounded to the nearest cent), minus accrued and unpaid interest from the last interest payment date to, but excluding, the settlement date, payable on the settlement date. In addition, registered holders of Securities who validly tender and do not validly withdraw their securities in the offer will also receive accrued and unpaid interest from the last interest payment date to, but excluding, the settlement date, payable on the settlement date. The price determination date is expected to be Friday, December 10, 2004.

The offer is scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Tuesday, December 14, 2004, unless extended (such date and time, as they may be extended, the Expiration Date) or earlier terminated. Settlement of the offer is expected to occur on the third business day following the Expiration Date.

Vale Overseas has retained J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. to serve as Dealer Manager for the offer, JPMorgan Chase Bank to serve as the depository for the offer, J.P. Morgan Bank Luxembourg S.A. to serve as Luxembourg agent for the offer and D.F. King & Co., Inc. to serve as information agent for the offer.
