Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 31, 2009, Delta Apparel, Inc. (the Company) entered into Employment and Non-Solicitation Agreements (the Agreements) with each of the following Named Executive Officers (each an NEO): Deborah H. Merrill, Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company; William T. McGhee, President of Delta Activewear; Kenneth D. Spires, President of M.J. Soffe, LLC; and Martha M. Watson, President of Junkfood Clothing Company and Vice President and Secretary of the Company. The Agreements replace and supersede any prior employment agreements between the Company and the NEOs. The Agreements are identical to one another except for the employees' job titles and base salaries.

Unless earlier terminated in accordance with its terms, each Agreement will continue until December 31, 2012. The Agreements provide that each NEO will receive an annual base salary of not less than the base salary as follows: Deborah H. Merrill, $253,000; William T. McGhee, $221,500; Kenneth D. Spires, $310,000; and Martha M. Watson, $250,000. The base salary will be reviewed annually and is subject to upward adjustment at the discretion of the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Each Agreement provides that the NEO is entitled to participate in the Company's Short-Term Incentive Compensation Plan, to receive such executive fringe benefits as are provided to executives in comparable positions at the Company, and to receive such other benefits as are customarily available to executives of the Company, including, without limitation, vacations and life, medical and disability insurance.

If the NEO dies during the term of the Agreement, the Company will continue to pay the base salary in effect at the time of death to the NEO's estate for six months. If the NEO becomes disabled (as defined in the Agreement) during the term, and the Company terminates the NEO's employment, the NEO will continue to receive base salary and benefits for a period of six months from the date of termination of employment.

The Company may terminate the NEO's employment with or without cause upon written notice, and the NEO may terminate employment with the Company upon 60 days' prior written notice. If the Company terminates the NEO's employment without Cause (as defined in the Agreement) or the NEO terminates employment as a result of an uncured material breach of the Agreement by the Company, and in each case no Change of Control (as defined in the Agreement) has occurred, then the NEO is entitled to receive base salary and incentive compensation ranging from 3 months base salary and 25% of the Short-Term Incentive Compensation for the most recent full fiscal year if the NEO was employed for less than one year up to 12 months base salary and 100% of the Short-Term Incentive Compensation for the most recent full fiscal year if the NEO was employed for three or more years. To the extent permitted under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 409A, the sum of applicable base salary and incentive compensation shall be divided into equal monthly payments and paid to the NEO over the applicable payout period, depending on the NEO's years of service at the time of termination. To the extent permitted under IRC Section 409A, the Company will also provide the NEO with group life and disability coverage during the applicable payout period and make the NEO's COBRA payments for medical insurance during the applicable payout period. Each Agreement conditions the receipt of these amounts and benefits upon the NEO's execution of a release meeting specified criteria.

If within one year after a Change of Control (as defined in the Agreement), the NEO terminates employment for Good Reason (as defined in the Agreement) or the Company terminates the NEO's employment for any reason other than Cause (as defined in the Agreement), death or disability, then the NEO is entitled to receive in a lump sum an amount equal to one times the NEO's base salary as of the date of termination and an amount equal to the Short-Term Incentive Compensation received by the NEO for the most recent fiscal year prior to termination. The Company will also provide out-placement assistance and continue coverage under the Company's various welfare and benefit plans in effect at the time of termination for 12 months. These termination payments are subject to reduction to avoid constituting an excess parachute payment under IRC Section 280G.

During the term of the Agreement and in certain circumstances, for a period of 4 months after termination of the NEO's employment, the NEO is subject to non-competition restrictions. During the term of the Agreement and for a period of two years after expiration of the Agreement or termination of the NEO's employment, the NEO is subject to non-solicitation restrictions. The Agreement restricts the NEO from disparaging the Company and from disclosing the Company's confidential information and trade secrets.

The Employment and Non-Solicitation Agreements are attached as exhibits to this Form 8-K and are incorporated herein by reference.
