FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and the documents incorporated in this prospectus contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These statements discuss our current expectations concerning future results or events, including our future financial performance. We make these forward-looking statements in reliance on the safe harbor protections provided under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, among others:

statements concerning our expectations as to our future financial performance, results of operations, or other operational results or metrics; statements concerning the benefits that we expect will result from our business activities and certain transactions we have completed, such as increased revenue, decreased expenses, and avoided expenses and expenditures; and statements of our expectations, beliefs, future plans and strategies, anticipated developments (including new products), and other matters that are not historical facts.

These statements may be made expressly in this document or may be incorporated by reference to other documents we have filed or will file with the SEC. You can identify many of these statements by looking for words such as anticipates, believes, can, continue, could, estimates, expects, intends, may, plans, potential, or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology and similar references to future periods. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties that may cause actual results or events to be materially different from any future results or events expressed or implied by us in those statements. Many of the factors that will determine or effect these results or events are beyond our ability to control or project. Specific factors that could cause actual results or events to differ from those in the forward-looking statements include:

Table of Contents

our ability to develop and commercialize further our Solexa®, BeadArray , and VeraCode® technologies and to deploy new sequencing, genotyping, and gene expression products and applications for our technology platforms;

our ability to manufacture robust instrumentation, consumables, and reagents; reductions in the funding levels to our primary customers, including as the result of timing and amount of funding provided by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009; and other factors detailed in our filings with the SEC, including the risks, uncertainties, and assumptions described in Item 1A Risk Factors below, or in information disclosed in public conference calls, the date and time of which are released beforehand.

Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this prospectus. We undertake no obligation, and do not intend, to publicly update or revise forward-looking statements, to review or confirm analysts' expectations, or to provide interim reports or updates on the progress of any current financial quarter, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements contained in this prospectus. Given these uncertainties, we caution investors not to unduly rely on our forward-looking statements.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of common stock by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus.

Upon any cash exercise of the warrants covering the shares offered by this prospectus, we will receive a cash amount equal to the exercise price of the warrants. The warrants currently have exercise prices of $10.905 per share. However, warrantholders may in certain circumstances exercise their warrants on a cashless basis, in which case we will not receive any cash upon exercise.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the offer and sale of shares of our common stock by the selling stockholders named under the caption Selling Stockholders. We will pay all of the costs, expenses, and fees in connection with the registration of the shares covered by this prospectus, except that the selling stockholders will be responsible for any brokerage commissions or similar selling expenses attributable to the sale of shares.

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock in private transactions or on any stock exchange (including The NASDAQ Global Select Market), automated interdealer quotation system, over-the-counter market, or trading facility on which the shares are traded. These dispositions may be at fixed prices that may change, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at prices otherwise negotiated. The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which a broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

Table of Contents

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales (including short sales against the box);

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging or derivative transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

through the distribution of the common stock by any selling stockholder to its partners, members or stockholders;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a combination of any of the above methods of sale; and any other method permitted by applicable law.

The selling stockholders may effect these transactions by selling shares directly to purchasers or to or through broker-dealers, which may act as agents or principals. These broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders and/or the purchasers of shares for whom such broker-dealers may act as agents or to whom they sell as principal, or both. This compensation to any particular broker-dealer might be in excess of customary commissions and might constitute underwriting compensation.

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers that act in connection with the sale of shares might be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act of 1933, and any commissions received by these broker-dealers and any profit on the resale of the shares sold by them while acting as principals might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. We have agreed to indemnify certain of the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act. The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer, or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Because selling stockholders may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act, the selling stockholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. We have informed the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulative provisions of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to their sales in the market.

From time to time, the selling stockholders may pledge or donate or pledge their shares to others. The pledgees or donees will be deemed to be a selling stockholder for purposes of this prospectus. If a selling stockholder notifies us that a pledgee or donee intends to sell more than 500 shares, we intend to file a supplement to this prospectus to the extent required by law.

The selling stockholders also may resell all or a portion of the shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of that rule.

If required, we intend to file a supplement to this prospectus if a selling stockholder notifies us that any arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer.

Table of ContentsSELLING STOCKHOLDERS

On January 26, 2007, we acquired Solexa, Inc. for approximately 26.2 million shares of our common stock (adjusted for a two-for-one stock split that occurred in September 2008). On various dates before this acquisition, Solexa issued warrants for shares of Solexa's common stock to various investors and entered into agreements with these investors obligating Solexa to register, under the Securities Act, the offer and sale of the shares issuable upon the exercise of these warrants. When we acquired Solexa, we assumed Solexa's obligation to register the offer and sale of these shares, and the warrants became warrants for shares of our common stock. These agreements generally obligate us to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part effective until the fifth anniversary of such agreements.

The following table presents information regarding the selling stockholders and the shares that they may offer and sell from time to time under this prospectus. We prepared this table based on information that the selling stockholders listed below have supplied to us. The information about the selling stockholders listed below may change over time, and we may not be made aware of these changes. If the selling stockholders notify us of any such change, we will reflect the change in a prospectus supplement to this prospectus.

The term "selling stockholders" includes the stockholders listed below and certain of their pledgees and donees, or other successors, described under "Plan of Distribution." The number of shares in the column "Maximum Number of Shares of Common Stock Being Sold in this Offering" represents all of the shares that the applicable selling stockholder may offer under this prospectus and assumes the selling stockholder exercises, for cash, of all the warrants it holds. The selling stockholders may sell some, all, or none of their shares. We do not know how long the selling stockholders will hold the shares before selling them, if at all.

The selling stockholders may be deemed to be "underwriters" for purposes of the Securities Act, and any profits they realize by selling shares may be deemed to be underwriting compensation.

Beneficial ownership and percentage ownership are determined in accordance with the SEC's rules. The percentages in the table below are calculated based on 124,154,205 shares of our common stock outstanding as of July 1, 2010.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 14. Other Expenses of Issuance and Distribution

The following table lists the estimated expenses to be incurred by the registrant in connection with the offer and sale of securities registered under this registration statement:

Description	Amount
Registration fee	$ 356
Legal fees and charges	5,000
Accounting fees and expenses	10,000
Miscellaneous	5,000
Total	$ 20,356

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation includes provisions that eliminate, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), the personal liability of our directors to us or our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws also require us to indemnify our directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. Pursuant to these provisions, we have entered into indemnity agreements with each of our directors and certain of our officers.

Pursuant to Section 145 of the DGCL, a corporation generally has the power to indemnify its present and former directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses incurred by them in connection with any suit to which they are, or are threatened to be made, a party by reason of their serving in such positions so long as they acted in good faith and in a manner that they reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful.

These provisions do not eliminate the duty of care, and in appropriate circumstances, equitable remedies, such as injunctive or other forms of non-monetary relief, may remain available under Delaware law. Each director will continue to be subject to liability for breach of the director's duty of loyalty to us or our stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law, for unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions under Section 174 of the DGCL or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. These provisions also generally do not affect a director's responsibilities under any other laws, such as the federal securities laws.

Our amended and restated bylaws also expressly permit us to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of us, or is or was serving at the request of us as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not we would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the DGCL. Pursuant to this provision, we have acquired director and officer insurance policies that cover our directors and executive officers.

(iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

2. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference into this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the indemnity provisions incorporated by reference in Item 6, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
