SUPPLEMENT NO. 2 TO PROXY STATEMENT
NEW PER SHARE CASH MERGER CONSIDERATION OF $39.00
DATE OF RESCHEDULED SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS: MAY 8, 2007
YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

April 24, 2007

Dear Shareholders:

On or about February 1, 2007, we mailed to you a proxy statement, and on or about March 30, 2007 we mailed to you a supplement to the proxy statement (supplement No. 1 to proxy statement), each relating to a special meeting of shareholders of Clear Channel Communications, Inc., a Texas corporation (the Company), for the purpose of voting on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 16, 2006, among the Company, BT Triple Crown Merger Co., Inc., a Delaware corporation (Merger Sub), B Triple Crown Finco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, and T Triple Crown Finco, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (together with B Triple Crown Finco, LLC, the Fincos), which provides for the recapitalization of the Company by the merger of the Merger Sub with and into the Company, with the Company being the surviving corporation. The Fincos were formed by private equity funds sponsored by Thomas H. Lee Partners, L.P. and Bain Capital Partners, LLC (together, the Sponsors).

On April 18, 2007, the parties amended the original merger agreement to provide for, among other things, an increase of $1.40 in cash per share over the $37.60 in cash per share provided for in the original merger agreement, such that upon completion of the merger, each share of common stock of the Company, other than those shares (i) held in the Company's treasury stock or owned by Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (ii) held by shareholders who properly exercise their appraisal rights under Texas law, if any, and (iii) shares held by certain employees of the Company who have agreed with the Fincos to convert equity securities of the Company held by them into equity securities of the surviving corporation, will be converted into the right to receive $39.00 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax. You may also receive additional per share consideration under certain circumstances if the merger is consummated after January 1, 2008.

The original merger agreement as so amended is referred to in the accompanying supplement No. 2 to proxy statement as the amended merger agreement. The amendment to the original merger agreement is attached to the accompanying supplement No. 2 to proxy statement as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Company's board of directors by unanimous vote (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who recused themselves from the deliberations) has determined that the amended merger agreement is advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the unaffiliated shareholders of the Company, that the Company enter into the amendment to the original merger agreement, and consummate the merger on the terms and conditions of the amended merger agreement. The Company's board of directors (other than those directors who recused themselves from the deliberations) unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the amended merger agreement.

The Company's board of directors has rescheduled the special meeting of shareholders to Tuesday, May 8, 2007, at 9:00 a.m., local time, to allow shareholders time to consider the increase in merger consideration. The record date for the meeting has not changed. The special meeting will be held at the Westin Riverwalk Hotel, 420 Market Street, San Antonio, Texas 78205. Only shareholders of record at 5:00 p.m. Central Daylight Saving Time on March 23, 2007 are entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Please note that the proxy cards that accompanied the original proxy statement mailed to our shareholders with the notice of meeting dated January 29, 2007 and the supplement No. 1 to proxy statement remain valid. If you previously submitted a validly executed proxy card for the Special Meeting, which proxy has not been subsequently revoked, and you were a holder of record as of 5:00 p.m. Central Daylight Saving Time on March 23, 2007, your vote will be recorded as indicated on your proxy card or if you signed and dated your proxy card but did not indicate how you wished to vote, your proxy will be voted in favor of the adoption of the amended merger agreement. If you have already delivered a properly executed proxy, you do not need to do anything unless you wish to change your vote. If you have not previously voted or if you wish to revoke or change your vote, please complete, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, you should check the voting instruction card provided by your broker to see which voting options are available and the procedures to be followed. If you have any questions or need assistance in voting your shares, please call our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, toll-free at (877) 456-3427.

Your vote is very important regardless of the number of shares you own. The merger cannot be completed unless holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the special meeting vote for the adoption of the amended merger agreement.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please vote as soon as possible so that your shares are represented at the meeting. If you do not vote, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger.

The enclosed supplement No. 2 to proxy statement contains additional information about the amended merger agreement. We urge you to read the enclosed supplement No. 2 to proxy statement carefully and in its entirety. We also encourage you, if you have not done so already, to read the proxy statement dated January 29, 2007, as well as supplement No. 1 to proxy statement, dated March 28, 2007.

Thank you for your support and we look forward to seeing you on May 8, 2007.

Sincerely,

Mark P. Mays
Chief Executive Officer

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulatory agency has approved or disapproved of the merger, passed upon the merits or fairness of the merger or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of the disclosure in the enclosed documents. This supplement No. 2 to proxy statement is dated April 24, 2007 and is first being mailed to shareholders on or about April 26, 2007.

If you need another copy of the proxy statement, please call our proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, at 877-456-3427 (toll-free). The proxy statement may also be found on the Internet at <http://www.sec.gov>. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page S-26 of this supplement.

UPDATE TO THE SUMMARY TERM SHEET

This updated summary term sheet, together with the updated question and answer section, highlights important information discussed in more detail elsewhere in this supplement and in the proxy statement about the proposed merger. This updated summary term sheet does not contain all of the information you should consider before voting on the amended merger agreement and the merger. To understand the merger more fully, you are urged to read carefully this entire supplement and all of its annexes, including the amendment to the original merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this supplement, the proxy statement and all of its annexes and all information incorporated by reference before voting on whether to approve the amended merger agreement and the merger. The amended merger agreement is the legal document that governs the merger.

Amendment to Original Merger Agreement

On April 18, 2007, we together with Merger Sub and the Fincos, amended the original merger agreement to provide for an increase of $1.40 in cash per share of Company common stock over the $37.60 price per share of Company common stock provided for in the original merger agreement, such that upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of Company common stock, other than those shares (i) held in the Company's treasury stock or owned by Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (ii) held by shareholders who properly exercise their appraisal rights under Texas law, if any, and (iii) shares held by certain employees of the Company who have agreed with the Fincos to convert equity securities of the Company held by them into equity securities of the surviving corporation, will be converted into the right to receive $39.00 in cash, without interest, and less any applicable withholding tax. You may also receive additional per share consideration under certain circumstances if the merger is consummated after January 1, 2008.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide that the Company will pay the Fincos a termination fee of $200 million, but only if the $500 million termination fee that is payable under certain circumstances, described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination Fees beginning on page 83 of the proxy statement, is not otherwise payable, if the amended merger agreement is terminated (A) by the Fincos or the Company because a governmental entity has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable, (B) by the Fincos or the Company because the Company's shareholders do not adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting or any adjournment of the special meeting or (C) by the Fincos because the Company materially breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement such that the closing conditions would not be satisfied by the Termination Date (as defined in the proxy statement under the caption "The Merger Agreement Termination" on page 83) and such breach has not been cured within 30 days following delivery of written notice by the Fincos, and within twelve (12) months after such termination (i) the Company or any of its subsidiaries consummates a Contacted Party Proposal (as defined below under "Amendment to the Merger Agreement"), (ii) the Company or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Contacted Party Proposal, or (iii) one or more Contacted Parties (as defined below under "Amendment to the Merger Agreement") or a Qualified Group (as defined below under "Amendment to the Merger Agreement") commences a tender offer with respect to a Contacted Party Proposal, and, in the case of each of clause (ii) and (iii) above, subsequently consummates (whether during or after such twelve (12) month period) such Contacted Party Proposal.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide additional representations and warranties and covenants of the parties in connection with the execution of the amendment.

Shareholder Vote Required to Approve the Merger

You are being asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve and adopt the amended merger agreement and the merger contemplated by the amended merger agreement. Approval and adoption of the amended merger agreement and the merger require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the merger. On the record date, March 23, 2007, there were 493,902,969 shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the special meeting. See "Update to the Special Meeting" beginning on page S-8.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Our board of directors has approved the amended merger agreement and the merger and unanimously (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who recused themselves from the deliberations) recommends that you vote FOR the approval and adoption of the amended merger agreement and the merger and FOR the approval of any proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date to solicit additional proxies in favor of the approval and adoption of the amended merger agreement and the merger if there are not sufficient votes for approval and adoption of the amended merger agreement and the merger at the special meeting.

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors with respect to the amended merger agreement and the merger, you should be aware that some of the Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our shareholders generally. The board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the amended merger agreement and the merger. See "Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger" beginning on page S-13.

Financing

Equity Financing

In connection with the amendment of the original merger agreement, the Fincos received new equity commitment letters from each of the Sponsors which superseded and replaced the commitment letters that were obtained at the time of the execution of the original merger agreement, pursuant to which, subject to the conditions contained therein, the Sponsors have collectively agreed to make or cause to be made a cash capital contribution to the Fincos of up to $3.44 billion, which, subject to certain conditions, each of the Sponsors may assign to other investors.

Debt Financing

In connection with the amendment of the original merger agreement, the Fincos have obtained new commitments to provide up to $22.125 billion in aggregate debt financing, consisting of (i) senior secured credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $18.525 billion (of which up to $15.400 billion will be available at closing for purposes of financing the merger and related transactions), (ii) a receivables-backed revolving credit facility with a maximum availability of $1.0 billion, and (iii) a senior unsecured bridge loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $2.6 billion to finance, in part, the payment of the merger consideration, the repayment or refinancing of certain of our debt outstanding on the closing date of the merger and the payment of fees and expenses in connection with the merger, refinancing, financing and related transactions and, after the closing date of the merger, to provide for ongoing working capital, refinance other debt and general corporate purposes.

The new debt financing commitments, consistent with the original debt financing commitments, are not conditioned on nor do they require or contemplate the acquisition of the outstanding public shares of Clear Channel Outdoor Holdings, Inc. (Clear Channel Outdoor). The new debt financing commitments do not, and the original debt commitments did not, require or contemplate any changes to the existing cash management and intercompany arrangements between the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor, the provisions of which are described in Clear Channel Outdoor 's SEC filings. The consummation of the merger will not permit Clear Channel Outdoor to terminate these arrangements and the Company may continue to use the cash flows of Clear Channel Outdoor for its own general corporate purposes pursuant to the terms of the existing cash management and intercompany arrangements between the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor, which may include making payments on the new debt.

Under the amended merger agreement, the New Debt Commitment Letter (as defined below under Update to Financing Debt Financing) may be amended, restated or otherwise modified or superseded to add lenders and arrangers, increase the amount of debt, replace or modify the facilities or otherwise replace or modify the New Debt Commitment Letter in a manner not less beneficial in the aggregate to Merger Sub and the Fincos, except that any new debt financing commitments shall not (i) adversely amend the conditions to the debt financing set forth in the Debt Commitment Letter in any material respect, (ii) reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the closing of the merger, or (iii) reduce the aggregate amount of debt financing available for closing unless replaced with new equity or debt financing. The New Debt Commitment Letter amended and restated the Original Debt Commitment Letter (as defined below under Update to Financing Debt Financing)

Opinion of the Company 's Financial Advisor

Goldman Sachs delivered its oral opinion to our board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in its written opinion dated April 18, 2007, that as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $39.00 per share in cash to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of Company common stock (other than shares or other equity securities of the Company which may be converted into equity securities of the surviving corporation, or an affiliate of the surviving corporation, in lieu of receiving the applicable portion of the merger consideration, referred to herein as the Rollover Shares) pursuant to the amended merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated April 18, 2007, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this supplement. We encourage you to read the Goldman Sachs opinion carefully in its entirety. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. Goldman Sachs ' opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of our common stock should vote with respect to the amended merger agreement or the merger. Pursuant to an engagement letter between the Company and Goldman Sachs, the Company has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee of approximately $49 million, the principal portion of which is payable upon consummation of the merger. See Opinion of Company 's Financial Advisors beginning on page S-16.

UPDATE TO THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The following section provides brief answers to some of the more likely questions raised in connection with the amendment to the original merger agreement, the rescheduled special meeting and the merger. This section is not intended to contain all of the information that is important to you. You are urged to read the entire supplement and proxy statement carefully, including the information incorporated by reference and the annexes.

Q: Why are you sending me this supplement?

A: We are sending you this supplement because on April 18, 2007, we, Merger Sub and the Fincos amended the original merger agreement to provide for, among other things, an increase of $1.40 in cash per share over the $37.60 in cash per share provided for in the original merger agreement. This supplement provides information about the changes to the transaction and updates the proxy statement which was previously mailed to you on or about February 1, 2007 and supplement No. 1 to proxy statement previously mailed to you on or about March 30, 2007.

Q: What are the significant amendments to the original merger agreement?

A: The original merger agreement was amended to increase the merger consideration to be paid to our shareholders to $39.00 in cash per share of our common stock, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, from $37.60 per share of our common stock. In addition, if the merger occurs after January 1, 2008, you will also receive an additional amount equal to the lesser of:

the pro rata portion, based upon the number of days elapsed since January 1, 2008, of $39.00 multiplied by 8% per annum per share, or an amount equal to (a) the Operating Cash Flow (as defined under The Merger Agreement Treatment of Common Stock and Other Securities beginning on page 67 of the proxy statement) for the Company and its subsidiaries for the period from and including January 1, 2008 through and including the last day of the last month preceding the Closing Date for which financial statements are available at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the Closing Date less dividends paid or declared with respect to the foregoing period and amounts committed or paid to purchase equity interests in the Company or derivatives thereof with respect to that period (but only to the extent that those dividends or amounts are not deducted from the Operating Cash Flow for the Company and its subsidiaries for any prior period) divided by (b) the sum of the number of outstanding shares of Company common stock (including outstanding restricted shares) plus the number of shares of Company common stock issuable pursuant to convertible securities of the Company outstanding at the Closing Date with exercise prices less than $39.00.

The total amount paid per share of Company common stock is referred to in this supplement as the Merger Consideration.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide that the Company will pay the Fincos a termination fee of $200 million, but only if the $500 million termination fee that is payable under certain circumstances, described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Termination Fees beginning on page 83 of the proxy statement, is not otherwise payable, if the amended merger agreement is terminated (A) by the Fincos or the Company because a governmental entity has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable, (B) by the Fincos or the Company because the Company's shareholders do not adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting or any adjournment of the special meeting or (C) by the Fincos because the Company materially breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement such that the closing conditions would not be satisfied by the Termination Date (as defined in the proxy statement under the caption The Merger Agreement Termination on page 83) and such breach has not been cured within 30 days following delivery of written notice by the Fincos, and within twelve (12) months after such termination (i) the Company or any of its subsidiaries consummates a Contacted Party Proposal (as defined below under Amendment to the Merger Agreement), (ii) the Company or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a Contacted Party Proposal, or (iii) one or more Contacted Parties (as defined below under Amendment to the Merger Agreement) or a Qualified Group (as defined below under Amendment to the Merger Agreement) commences a tender offer with respect to a Contacted Party Proposal, and, in the case of each of clause (ii) and (iii) above, subsequently consummates (whether during or after such twelve (12) month period) such Contacted Party Proposal.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide additional representations and warranties and covenants of the parties in connection with the execution of the amendment.

Q: How does the new merger consideration compare to the market price of the Company's common stock?

A: The new merger consideration of $39.00 in cash per share of our common stock represents an increase of $1.40 per share, or approximately 3.7% over the $37.60 price per share previously provided by the original merger agreement. The new merger consideration of $39.00 per share represents a premium of approximately 33.3% over the average closing share price during the 60 trading days ended October 24, 2006, the day prior to the announcement of the Company's decision to consider strategic alternatives.

Q: How will options to purchase Company common stock be treated in the merger?

A: Except as otherwise agreed by the Fincos and a holder of options to purchase Company common stock, each outstanding option to purchase Company common stock (a Company stock option) that remains outstanding and unexercised as of the effective time of the merger, whether vested or unvested, will automatically become fully vested and convert into the right to receive a cash payment, without interest and less any applicable withholding tax, equal to the product of (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share of such Company stock option and (ii) the number of shares of Company common stock issuable upon exercise of such Company stock option. As of the effective time of the merger, Company stock options will no longer be outstanding and will automatically cease to exist, and the holders thereof will no longer have any rights with respect to the Company stock options, except the right to receive the cash payment, if any, described in the preceding sentence.

Q: How will restricted shares of Company common stock be treated in the merger?

A: Except as otherwise agreed by the Fincos and a holder of restricted shares with respect to that holder's restricted shares, each restricted share of Company common stock (Company restricted stock) that remains outstanding as of the effective time of the merger, whether vested or unvested, will automatically become fully vested and convert into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the Merger Consideration. As of the effective time of the merger, all such Company restricted stock, whether vested or unvested, will no longer be outstanding and will automatically cease to exist, and the holders thereof, including our directors and executive officers, will no longer have any rights with respect to the Company restricted stock, except the right to receive a cash payment described in the preceding sentence.

Q: Does the board of directors still support the merger?

A: Yes. Our board of directors unanimously (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who recused themselves from the deliberations) recommends that our shareholders vote FOR the merger and the amended merger agreement.

Q: What should I do if I already voted using the proxy card you sent me earlier?

A: First, carefully read this supplement and the proxy statement, including the information incorporated by reference and the annexes. If you have already submitted a proxy, you do not need to do anything unless you want to change your vote. If you want to change your vote, you need to submit a new proxy card (one is included with this supplement) or attend the special meeting and vote in person. Otherwise, you will be considered to have voted on the amended merger agreement as indicated in the proxy card you sent earlier and the proxies identified in the proxy card you sent earlier will vote your shares as indicated in that previously submitted proxy card. If you are a registered holder and you wish to change your vote, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the accompanying prepaid envelope. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, and you wish to change your vote, please refer to your voting card or other information forwarded by your broker, bank or other holder of record to determine whether you may vote by telephone or on the Internet and follow the instructions on the card or other information provided by the record holder.

Q: What should I do if I have not voted my shares?

A: First, carefully read this supplement and the proxy statement, including the information incorporated by reference and the annexes. If you are a registered holder and you have not already delivered a properly executed proxy, or wish to change your vote, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the accompanying prepaid envelope to ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, and you have not already delivered a properly executed proxy please refer to your voting card or other information forwarded by your broker, bank or other holder of record to determine whether you may vote by telephone or on the Internet and follow the instructions on the card or other information provided by the record holder. Your vote is important. Accordingly, we urge you to sign and return the accompanying proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting.

Q: How do I revoke or change my vote?

A: You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You may revoke your proxy by notifying the Company in writing or by submitting a later-dated new proxy by mail to the Company c/o Innisfree M&A Incorporated at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10022. In addition, your proxy may be revoked by attending the special meeting and voting in person. However, simply attending the special meeting will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply, and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card or vote instruction card?

A: If your shares are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one card. Please sign, date and return all of the proxy cards you receive (or submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet, if applicable) to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: What if I return my proxy card without specifying my voting choices?

A: If your proxy card is signed and returned without specifying choices, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Board.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting has been rescheduled and will be held on May 8, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at the Westin Riverwalk Hotel, 420 Market Street, San Antonio, Texas 78205.

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting has not changed. You can vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of our common stock as of 5:00 p.m. Central Daylight Saving Time on March 23, 2007, the record date. As of the record date there were 493,902,969 shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the special meeting. See Update to the Special Meeting beginning on page S-8.

S-6

Q: How many votes are required to approve and adopt the merger and the amended merger agreement?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote is required to approve and adopt the amended merger agreement and the merger. The failure to vote has the same effect as a vote AGAINST the adoption of the amended merger agreement.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

A: If you have more questions about the rescheduled special meeting, the amended merger agreement, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares, or need additional copies of the proxy statement or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact:

In addition to other factors and matters contained or incorporated in this document, we believe the following factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements:

the outcome of any legal proceedings instituted against the Company and others in connection with the proposed merger;

the failure to obtain the necessary debt financing arrangements set forth in the updated commitment letters received in connection with the merger;

UPDATE TO THE SPECIAL MEETING

The special meeting has been rescheduled to May 8, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. local time at the Westin Riverwalk Hotel, 420 Market Street, San Antonio, Texas 78205. The record date for the meeting has not changed. Only shareholders of record at 5:00 p.m. Central Daylight Saving Time on March 23, 2007 are entitled to vote at the special meeting.

UPDATE TO THE MERGER

Amendment No. 1 to the Original Merger Agreement

On April 18, 2007, we, together with Merger Sub and the Fincos entered into Amendment No. 1, dated as of April 18, 2007, to the original merger agreement. The proxy statement includes the original merger agreement as Annex A and also includes a summary of the original merger agreement, beginning on page 65 of the proxy statement. A copy of the amendment to the original merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this supplement and is incorporated by reference into this discussion.

On April 18, 2007, we together with Merger Sub and the Fincos amended the original merger agreement to provide for an increase of $1.40 in cash per share of Company common stock over the $37.60 price per share of Company common stock provided for in the original merger agreement, such that upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of Company common stock, other than those shares (i) held in the Company's treasury stock or owned by Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (ii) held by shareholders who properly exercise their appraisal rights under Texas law, if any, and (iii) shares held by certain employees of the Company who have agreed with the Fincos to convert equity securities of the Company held by them into equity securities of the surviving corporation or an affiliate of the surviving corporation, will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest, and less any applicable withholding tax.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide that the Company will pay the Fincos a termination fee of $200 million, but only if the $500 million termination fee that is payable under certain circumstances, described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Termination Fees" beginning on page 83 of the proxy statement, is not otherwise payable, if the merger agreement is terminated (A) by the Fincos or the Company because a governmental entity has issued an order, decree or ruling or taken any other action permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action is final and non-appealable, (B) by the Fincos or the Company because the Company's shareholders do not adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting or any adjournment of the special meeting or (C) by the Fincos because the Company materially breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the merger agreement such that the closing conditions would not be satisfied by the Termination Date (as defined in the proxy statement under the caption "The Merger Agreement Termination" on page 83) and such breach has not been cured within 30 days following delivery of written notice by the Fincos, and within twelve (12) months after such termination (i) the Company or any of its subsidiaries consummates, (ii) the Company or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement, or (iii) one or more Contacted Parties (as defined below) or a Qualified Group (as defined below) commences a tender offer with respect to a Contacted Party Proposal (as defined below), and, in the case of each of clause (ii) and (iii) above, subsequently consummates (whether during or after such twelve (12) month period) such Contacted Party Proposal.

For purposes of the amended merger agreement, "Contacted Party" means any person, (i) that was referenced in the proxy statement as having been contacted during the auction process, or (ii) were contacted during the go-shop period provided for in the original merger agreement which commenced on November 17, 2006 and ended on December 7, 2007, or in the case of (i) and (ii), their affiliates.

For purposes of the amended merger agreement, "Qualified Group" means any Contacted Party, either by itself or acting as a group as defined in Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which does not include any of the Parents, Merger Sub or their respective Affiliates.

For purposes of the amended merger agreement, "Contacted Parties Proposal" means (i) any transaction in which a Contacted Party or a Qualified Group, directly or indirectly acquires or purchases, in any single transaction or series of related transactions, more than 50% of the fair market value of the assets, issued and outstanding Company common stock or other ownership interests of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or to which 50% or more of the Company's and its subsidiaries, net revenues or earnings on a consolidated basis are attributable (ii) any tender offer or exchange offer (including through the filing with the SEC of a Schedule TO), as defined pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that if consummated would result in one or more of the Contacted Parties or a Qualified Group acting in concert acquiring assets, securities or businesses in the minimum percentage described in clause (i) above or (iii) any merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, issuance of or amendment to the terms of outstanding stock or other securities, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving the Company as a result of which any Contacted Party or Qualified Group acting in concert would acquire assets, securities or businesses in the minimum percentage described in clause (i) above. For clarification purposes, a spin-off, recapitalization, stock repurchase program or other transaction effected by the Company or any of its subsidiaries will not constitute a Contacted Parties Proposal unless, as a result of such transaction, a Contacted Party or Qualified Group acting in concert acquires the assets, securities or business representing more than 50% of the fair market value of the assets, issued and outstanding Company common stock or other ownership interests of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or to which 50% or more of the Company's and its subsidiaries net revenues or earnings on a consolidated basis are attributable.

The original merger agreement has also been amended to provide additional representations and warranties and covenants of the parties in connection with the execution of the amendment.

Update to the Background of the Merger

The proxy statement describes the background of the merger up to and including January 29, 2007. The discussion below supplements that description up to and including the date of this supplement. For litigation developments subsequent to the date of the proxy statement, see "Update to Merger Related Litigation."

During the period between January and March 2007, Messrs. Mark and Randall Mays together with Alan Feld, our lead director, and Perry J. Lewis, the Chairman of the special advisory committee, met with several of our institutional shareholders to provide them more detail regarding the board's process that led to its determination to recommend the merger. During these meetings, some of our institutional shareholders indicated that they intended to vote against the merger proposal and expressed the view that the merger consideration of $37.60 per share was not sufficient to obtain their vote.

At a meeting held on March 13, 2007, our board of directors, with Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs recusing themselves, rescheduled the special meeting of shareholders to April 19, 2007 and set a new record date for shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting of March 23, 2007. In making that determination, the board considered the substantial trading volume in our shares of common stock since the original record date for the special meeting, and as the original record date no longer reflected our then current shareholder base, determined to set a new record date to better align the economic and voting interests of all shareholders.

On April 12, 2007, Ropes & Gray LLP, on behalf of the Fincos, requested in writing to the board that pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, the Company reconfirm to the shareholders its recommendation to vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and the merger.

On April 13, 2007, the Fincos provided to our board of directors a letter indicating their willingness to discuss a proposal to amend the merger agreement. The proposal reflected a change in the merger consideration to include $38.50 per share, the opportunity for each shareholder, in that shareholder's sole discretion, to receive the $38.50 in either, or a combination of, cash and/or shares of stock in the surviving corporation (up to an aggregate cap on the number of shares of stock equivalent to 10% of the outstanding shares immediately following the merger) and a contingent value right, or CVR, providing for a right to receive contingent cash payments in certain circumstances. Specifically, the CVR would provide that the shareholders would receive in installments (i) following the closing of the merger, within 10 business days following the availability of certain financial statements covering the period through closing, (ii) in 2009, 50% of the net proceeds (net of expenses, reserves, and certain other costs and taxes) received by the Company from the sale of certain non-core radio and television assets in excess of $2.0 billion, and (iii) in 2010 an additional amount per share if the compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of our radio business for the period from January 1, 2006 through December 31, 2009 is 2% or higher. In the latter case, if the CAGR for our radio business for this period was less than 2%, no additional amount would be paid under the CVR; if the CAGR for our radio business for this period was equal to or greater than 2% (but less than 3%), an additional $1.00 per share would be paid to our shareholders; and if the CAGR for our radio business for this period was greater than 3%, an additional $2.00 per share would be paid to our shareholders. The proposal also included proposed additional termination fees payable by the Company in certain circumstances, as follows: (x) in the event that our shareholders did not approve the merger at the special meeting, the Company would be required to pay to the Fincos $75 million in lieu of any expense reimbursement (which under the original merger agreement and under the amended merger agreement, is capped at $45 million) and (ii) in the event that the merger agreement was terminated and a Competing Proposal was consummated with one of the parties contacted during the auction process or the go-shop period within 12 months thereafter, the Company would be required to pay a termination fee to the Fincos in the amount of $600 million. The proposal made by the Fincos provided that it would terminate automatically in the event that the Company made any public disclosure of its terms.

On that same day, the board of directors convened a special meeting by telephone, which was attended by representatives of Akin Gump and Goldman Sachs. Present at the meeting were each of the directors (other than Ms. Phyllis Riggins and Mr. J.C. Watts). Representatives of Goldman Sachs summarized the proposal received from the Fincos. Representatives of Akin Gump addressed certain legal matters, including the fiduciary duties of the board of directors. They further explained that if the board were to accept the proposal, the timing of the special meeting could be delayed by as much as 90 days in order to allow the Company an opportunity to prepare, file and process a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission and distribute it to the Company's shareholders. Management reported that, after consulting with representatives of Goldman Sachs, the value of the CVR is highly uncertain given the nature of the minimum thresholds for any future payments. Management noted that its current estimates indicated that the net proceeds from non-core radio and TV assets (as these terms were defined in the FINCO proposal) would not exceed $2.0 billion and that analyst estimates for growth in the radio industry are uncertain. The board requested Goldman Sachs to prepare a financial analysis regarding the proposal and adjourned the meeting to April 15, 2007. Each of Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs then excused themselves from the meeting. The disinterested directors continued their deliberations.

A special meeting of the board of directors was held by telephone on April 15, 2007 (attended by each of the directors other than Mr. B. J. McCombs and Ms. Phyllis Riggins), and was also attended by representatives of Akin Gump and Goldman Sachs. Management reviewed and discussed its revised forecasts with our board of directors. Representatives of Goldman Sachs made a presentation to our board of directors regarding an analysis of the financial terms of the proposed amendment to the merger agreement and an updated financial analysis of the strategic alternatives available to the Company, including a separation of Clear Channel Outdoor, a recapitalization and special dividend. The directors discussed the presentation and asked questions of management and conducted a thorough review of each of these alternatives, including the risks and challenges presented by each alternative; the potential value that each alternative could generate to the Company's shareholders; the potential disruption to the Company's existing business plans and prospects occasioned by each alternative; and the likelihood of successfully executing on each alternative.

Following this presentation, each of Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays and L. Lowry Mays then excused themselves from the meeting and the disinterested directors continued their deliberations. Following discussion, the disinterested directors directed Goldman Sachs to inform the Fincos that the board was concerned about the delays that would be attendant to their proposal and that they strongly favored an all cash offer, which should be increased from $38.50 per share in light of the expressed opposition of certain of the Company's shareholders.

On April 16, 2007, a special meeting of the board of directors was held by telephone, which was also attended by representatives of Akin Gump and Goldman Sachs. Representatives of Goldman Sachs reported to our board of directors on Goldman Sachs' discussion with the Fincos following the meeting of the board of directors held on April 15, 2007. Goldman Sachs reported that the Fincos had indicated they would take under consideration the request that the offer be converted to an all cash offer. Goldman Sachs also reported that the Fincos had requested that the board of directors respond to the other terms of the proposal, including the changes to the termination fee provisions. Following a discussion among our directors, Goldman Sachs was instructed to inform the Fincos that the board of directors strongly preferred an increased all cash offer and that the board was not agreeable to any change in the termination fees.

On April 17, 2007, the Fincos submitted to our board of directors a revised written proposal to amend the merger agreement. The revised proposal reflected an all cash merger consideration of $39.00 per share. The revised proposal also included proposed changes in termination fees payable by the Company in certain circumstances, as follows: (i) in the event that our shareholders did not approve the merger at the special meeting, the Company would be required to pay to the Fincos $60 million in lieu of any expense reimbursement (which under the original merger agreement and under the amended merger agreement is capped at $45 million) and (ii) in the event that the merger agreement was terminated for any reason other than a willful breach by the Fincos and the Company executed a definitive agreement with respect to or consummated a Competing Proposal with one of the parties contacted during the auction process or the go-shop period within 12 months thereafter, the Company would be required to pay a termination fee to the Fincos in the amount of $500 million.

On April 17, 2007, the board of directors convened a special meeting by telephone, which also was attended by representatives of Akin Gump and Goldman Sachs. Present at the meeting were each of the directors. Goldman Sachs presented to the board of directors the terms of the written proposal submitted by the Fincos. Following the presentation, each of Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs then excused themselves from the meeting and the disinterested directors discussed the revised written proposal. The disinterested directors directed Goldman Sachs to inform the Fincos that the board was not agreeable to the $60 million fee payable in the event the shareholders failed to approve the merger but, in consideration of the increase in the merger consideration, would accept an additional fee of $100 million in the event that the merger agreement was terminated and a Competing Proposal was consummated with one of the parties contacted during the auction process or the go-shop period within 12 months thereafter. The special meeting was adjourned to enable Goldman Sachs to discuss the board's proposal with the Fincos.

Later on that same date, the board of directors re-convened the special meeting by telephone. Goldman Sachs reported that the Fincos had revised their proposal further, indicating that it was their best and final proposal. The revised proposal was presented in the form of an amendment to the merger agreement, which in its final form is referred to in this supplement as the Amendment. The revised proposal reflected an all cash merger consideration of $39.00 per share. The revised proposal also included a proposed change in termination fees payable by the Company in the event that the merger agreement was terminated for any reason other than a willful breach by the Fincos and the Company executed a definitive agreement with respect to or consummated a Competing Proposal with one of the parties contacted during the auction process or the go-shop period, or their affiliates, within 12 months thereafter. In this event, the Company would be required to pay a termination fee to the Fincos in the amount of $200 million. Representatives of Akin Gump reviewed with our board of directors its fiduciary duties in the context of a review of the proposed amendment to the original merger agreement. Representatives of Goldman Sachs made a presentation to our board of directors regarding an analysis of the financial terms of the proposed amendment to the original merger agreement, which analysis is summarized below under the caption, "Opinion of the Company's Financial Advisor". The directors discussed the presentation and asked questions of management. The directors reviewed their deliberations and discussion of the other strategic alternatives available to the Company at the prior meetings and asked questions of Goldman Sachs and management.

Following these discussions, each of Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs then excused themselves from the meeting and the disinterested directors continued their deliberations. Goldman Sachs then delivered to our board of directors its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing), that as of the date of its opinion, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions therein, the consideration of $39.00 per share in cash to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of our common stock (other than the Rollover Shares) pursuant to the amended merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

In connection with the execution of the original merger agreement, the disinterested members of our board of directors formed a special advisory committee comprised of three disinterested and independent members of the board, with the purpose of providing its assessment as to the fairness of the terms of the original merger agreement and to provide its assessment in the event the Company receives a Competing Proposal (as defined under "The Merger Agreement - Solicitations of Alternative Proposals" beginning on page 77 of the proxy statement). The special advisory committee was not requested by the independent directors to separately assess the proposed amendment, as the amendment does not constitute a Competing Proposal. As a consequence, Lazard Frères & Co., LLC, financial advisor to the special advisory committee, was not requested to provide an opinion with respect to the proposed amendment.

Our board of directors (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who had recused themselves from the deliberations) then considered the proposed amendment to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Following a discussion of the Goldman Sachs presentation and the proposed amendment, our Board of Directors:

determined that the amended merger agreement and the merger are advisable, fair to and in the best interest of our shareholders; approved and adopted the amended merger agreement and the merger; and unanimously recommended that our shareholders approve and adopt the amended merger agreement and the merger.

Our board of directors then considered whether the special meeting should be rescheduled as a result of the proposed amendment to the merger agreement. Our board of directors determined that, subject to the execution of the amendment to the merger agreement, the special meeting be rescheduled and held on May 8, 2007 to allow our shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting additional time to consider the amendment to the merger agreement and the information in this supplement and in the proxy statement.

On April 18, 2007, we, Merger Sub and the Fincos executed the amendment to the merger agreement and issued a press release announcing the amendment to the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The following information supplements information previously provided in the section entitled "The Merger Recommendation of the Board of Directors" beginning on page 41 of the proxy statement.

After careful consideration our board of directors by unanimous vote (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who recused themselves from the deliberations):

determined that the merger is fair to and in the best interests of the Company and its unaffiliated shareholders;

approved, adopted and declared advisable the amended merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended merger agreement;

recommended that the shareholders of the Company vote in favor of the merger and directed that such matter be submitted for consideration of the shareholders of the Company at the special meeting; and authorized the execution, delivery and performance of the amended merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the amended merger agreement.

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors with respect to the amended merger agreement, you should be aware that some of the Company's directors and executive officers who participated in meetings of the board of directors have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our shareholders generally. See The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 41 of the proxy statement and Update to Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page S-13 of this supplement.

Update to Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

The information below reflects the effects of the amendment to the original merger agreement and updates certain information presented in The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 41 of the proxy statement.

Treatment of Company Stock Options

As of April 23, 2007, there were 6,634,019 outstanding Company stock options held by our directors and executive officers under the Company's stock option plans. Of these Company stock options, 2,292,819 have an exercise price below $39.00, and are considered in the money.

The following table identifies, for each of our directors and executive officers, the aggregate number of shares of Company common stock subject to outstanding vested and unvested in the money options as of April 23, 2007, the aggregate number of shares of Company common stock subject to outstanding unvested in the money options that will become fully vested in connection with the merger, the weighted average exercise price and value of such unvested in the money options, and the weighted average exercise price and value of vested and unvested in the money options. The information in the table assumes that all options remain outstanding on the closing date of the merger.

Treatment of Company Restricted Stock

As of April 23, 2007, our directors and executive officers held 729,782 shares of Company restricted stock. Each share of Company restricted stock that remains outstanding as of the Effective Time, including Company restricted stock held by our executive officers and directors (except as described under "Equity Rollover" beginning on page 44 of the proxy statement), whether vested or unvested, will automatically become fully vested and convert into the right to receive a cash payment equal to $39.00 in cash, without interest, and less any applicable withholding tax. As of the Effective Time, all shares of Company restricted stock (except as described under "Equity Rollover" beginning on page 44 of the proxy statement) will no longer be outstanding and will automatically cease to exist, and such directors and executive officers will no longer have any rights with respect to their shares of Company restricted stock, except the right to receive a cash payment equal to in cash, without interest, and less any applicable withholding tax, in respect of each share of Company restricted stock.

The following table identifies, for each of our directors and executive officers, the aggregate number of shares of Company restricted stock held by such director or executive officer as of April 23, 2007 and the value of these shares of Company restricted stock that will become fully vested in connection with the merger. The information in this table assumes that all such shares of Company restricted stock remain outstanding on the closing date of the merger.

UPDATE TO FINANCING

Update to Financing the Merger

The total amount of funds necessary to complete the merger is anticipated to be approximately $22.2 billion, consisting of (i) approximately $19.4 billion to pay the Company's shareholders and option holders the amounts due to them under the merger agreement, assuming that no Company shareholder validly exercises and perfects its appraisal rights, (ii) approximately $0.5 billion to pay related fees and expenses in connection with the merger and (iii) approximately $2.3 billion to refinance certain existing indebtedness, including all of the Company's existing bank indebtedness and certain issues of the Company's outstanding public debt. These payments are expected to be funded by Merger Sub and the Fincos in a combination of equity contributions by other investors in the Fincos, debt financing obtained by the Fincos and made available to the Company and to the extent available, cash of the Company. The Fincos and Merger Sub have obtained equity and debt financing commitments described below in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Equity Financing

In connection with the amendment of the original merger agreement, the Fincos received new equity commitment letters (the "New Equity Commitment Letters") from each of the Sponsors which supersede and replace the commitment letters that were obtained at the time of the execution of the original merger agreement (the "Original Equity Commitment Letters"), pursuant to which, subject to the conditions contained therein, the Sponsors have collectively agreed to make or cause to be made a cash capital contribution to the Fincos of up to $3.44 billion, which, subject to certain conditions, each of the Sponsors may assign to other investors. Other than the increase in the maximum equity commitment of each Sponsors, the New Equity Commitment Letters contain the same terms as the Original Equity Commitment Letters.

Debt Financing

In connection with the amendment of the original merger agreement, the Fincos have received an amended and restated debt commitment letter, dated April 18, 2007 (the "New Debt Commitment Letter"), from Citigroup Global Markets Inc., Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, Deutsche Bank AG Cayman Islands Branch, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Morgan Stanley Senior Funding Inc., Credit Suisse, Cayman Islands Branch, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc, RBS Securities Corporation, Wachovia Bank, National Association, Wachovia Investment Holdings, LLC and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC (collectively, the Financing Sources) to provide $22.125 billion in aggregate debt financing, consisting of (i) senior secured credit facilities in an aggregate principal amount of $18.525 billion (of which up to $15.400 billion will be available at closing for purposes of financing the merger and related transactions), (ii) a receivables-backed revolving credit facility with a maximum availability of $1.0 billion, and (iii) a senior unsecured bridge loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $2.6 billion to finance, in part, the payment of the merger consideration, the repayment or refinancing of certain of our debt outstanding on the closing date of the merger and the payment of fees and expenses in connection with the merger, refinancing, financing and related transactions and, after the closing date of the merger, to provide for ongoing working capital, refinance other debt and general corporate purposes.

The New Debt Commitment Letter amended and restated the debt commitment letter, dated November 16, 2006 (the Original Debt Commitment Letter) and provided new financing debt commitments in accordance with the requirements under the original merger agreement. The new debt commitments expire on the termination date set forth in the amended merger agreement, which remain the same as those set forth in the original merger agreement, as may be extended pursuant to the terms of the amended merger agreement. The New Debt Commitment Letter increased the aggregate amount of debt financing available for closing and did not adversely amend the conditions to the debt financing as set forth in the Original Debt Commitment Letter in any material respect and the new debt financing commitments are not reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the closing of the merger.

The new debt financing commitments, consistent with the original debt financing commitments, are not conditioned on nor do they require or contemplate the acquisition of the outstanding public shares of Clear Channel Outdoor. The new debt financing commitments do not, and the original debt financing commitments did not, require or contemplate any changes to the existing cash management and intercompany arrangements between the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor, the provisions of which are described in Clear Channel Outdoor's SEC filings. The consummation of the merger will not permit Clear Channel Outdoor to terminate these arrangements and the Company may continue to use the cash flows of Clear Channel Outdoor for its own general corporate purposes pursuant to the terms of the existing cash management and intercompany arrangements between the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor, which may include making payments on the new debt.

Although the debt financing described above is not subject to due diligence or a typical market out provision (i.e. a provision allowing lenders not to fund their commitments if certain conditions in the financial markets prevail) such financing may not be considered assured. As of the date of this supplement, no alternative financing arrangements or alternative financing plans have been made in the event the debt financing described in this proxy statement is not available as anticipated. Under the amended merger agreement, the New Debt Commitment Letter may be amended, restated or otherwise modified or superseded to add lenders and arrangers, increase the amount of debt, replace or modify the facilities or otherwise replace or modify the New Debt Commitment Letter in a manner not less beneficial in the aggregate to Merger Sub and the Fincos, except that any new debt financing commitments shall not (i) adversely amend the conditions to the debt financing set forth in the Original Debt Commitment Letter in any material respect, (ii) reasonably be expected to delay or prevent the closing of the merger, or (iii) reduce the aggregate amount of debt financing available for closing unless replaced with new equity or debt financing.

OPINION OF COMPANY'S FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Goldman Sachs delivered its oral opinion to our board of directors, which was subsequently confirmed in its written opinion dated April 18, 2007, that, as of such date, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $39.00 per share in cash to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of Company common stock (other than the Rollover Shares) pursuant to the amended merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated April 18, 2007, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this supplement. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction. Goldman Sachs' opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Company common stock should vote with respect to the merger.

In connection with delivering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

the amended merger agreement;

annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for the five years ended December 31, 2006;

annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Clear Channel Outdoor, a subsidiary of the Company, for the two years ended December 31, 2006;

Clear Channel Outdoor's Registration Statement on Form S-1, including the prospectus contained therein, dated November 10, 2005, relating to the Clear Channel Outdoor Class A common stock; certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor; certain other communications from the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor to their respective shareholders; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company prepared by our management, which included certain assessments with respect to the likelihood of achieving such forecasts for the Company and financial analyses and forecasts for Clear Channel Outdoor.

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor. In addition, Goldman Sachs reviewed the reported price and trading activity for our common stock and Clear Channel Outdoor Class A common stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the broadcasting and outdoor advertising industries specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

Goldman Sachs relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, accounting, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of delivering the opinion described above. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company, Clear Channel Outdoor or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was any evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company, Clear Channel Outdoor or any of their respective subsidiaries furnished to Goldman Sachs. Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the transaction or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative transaction that might be available to the Company. Goldman Sachs' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, the date of the opinion.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by Goldman Sachs to the board of directors of the Company in connection with rendering the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before April 16, 2007 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Present Value of Transaction Price Analysis.

Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis of the present value of the transaction price of $39.00 per share of Company common stock. For this analysis, Goldman Sachs incorporated the value of an annual dividend of $0.75 per share to be paid quarterly through closing. Goldman Sachs then discounted the value of the transaction price and the value of any dividends to be paid through closing using potential closing dates of September 30, 2007, November 15, 2007 and December 31, 2007 and discount rates ranging from 6.0% to 10.0%. The following table presents the results of Goldman Sachs' analysis:

| Closing Date | Illustrative Present Value |
|---------------------|-----------------------------------|
| September 30, 2007 | $ 37.69-$38.34 |
| November 15, 2007 | $ 37.24-$38.06 |
| December 31, 2007 | $ 36.98-$37.96 |

Analysis at Various Prices.

Goldman Sachs performed certain analyses, based on historical financial information, SEC filings and financial forecasts provided by the Company's management. Using the closing market price of the Company's common stock on April 16, 2007 of $36.35 per share and the transaction price of $39.00 per share of Company common stock. Goldman Sachs calculated (i) adjusted equity values by subtracting unconsolidated assets and the present value of tax assets from the Company's implied equity values, and (ii) adjusted enterprise values by subtracting unconsolidated assets and the present value of tax assets from the Company's implied enterprise values. Goldman Sachs then calculated (i) the ratio of adjusted enterprise values to revenue, (ii) the ratio of adjusted enterprise values to earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, and (iii) the ratio of adjusted equity values to free cash flow, or FCF, adjusted to remove effects of acquisition related depreciation and amortization.

The following table presents the results of Goldman Sachs' analysis based on illustrative Company common stock share prices of $36.35 and $39.00.

| | | $36.35 per share | $39.00 per share |
|------------------------------------|-------|------------------------------|------------------------------|
| Adjusted Enterprise Value/Revenue | 2007E | 3.5x | 3.7x |
| | 2008E | 3.4x | 3.6x |
| Adjusted Enterprise Value/EBITDA | 2007E | 10.7x | 11.3x |

| Adjusted Equity Value/Adjusted FCF | 2007E | 15.2x | 16.4x |
| | 2008E | 14.2x | 15.3x |

Goldman Sachs also reviewed the historical trading prices and volumes for our common stock for the two-year period ended November 14, 2006. In addition, Goldman Sachs analyzed the closing market price of $36.35 per share of the Company's common stock on April 16, 2007 and the transaction price of $39.00 per share of Company common stock in relation to (i) the closing prices of our common stock on April 16, 2007, on October 6, 2006 (the last trading day prior to the day that a research analyst issued a report outlining potential strategic alternatives for the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor), and on September 22, 2006 (the last trading day prior to the September 25, 2006 meeting of the Company's board of directors during which strategic alternatives were discussed), (ii) the high price over the 52-week and two-year periods ended November 14, 2006 and (iii) the low price over the 52-week and two-year periods ended November 14, 2006. The following table presents the results of Goldman Sachs analysis based on illustrative share prices of $36.35 and $39.00 per share of Company common stock:

| | $36.35 per share | $39.00 per share |

| Premium to low price of $27.41 per share for the two-year and 52-week period ended November 14, 2006 | 32.6% | 42.3% |

Present Value of Future Stock Price Analysis.

Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of the future stock price of the Company, which is designed to provide an indication of the present value of a theoretical future value of a company's equity as a function of such company's estimated future capital structure and implied share price based on an assumed enterprise value as a multiple of future EBITDA using the Company's management forecasts as of April 2007. For this analysis, Goldman Sachs used the financial forecasts for the Company prepared by our management as of April 2007 and assumed (i) a $1.6 billion minority interest based on Clear Channel Outdoor and Clear Media Ltd. market data as of April 16, 2007 and a $210 million other minority interest grown in each case at 5% per year based on management forecasts as of April 2007, (ii) unconsolidated assets of $540 million grown at 5% per year based on management forecasts as of April 2007, (iii) a $1.1 billion present value of tax assets, (iv) that leverage is maintained at a total debt to last twelve months EBITDA ratio of 3.5x, (v) that excess cash flow is used to repurchase our common stock at enterprise value to one-year forward EBITDA multiples of 9.0x to 10.0x, and (vi) an annual recurring dividend of $0.75 per share. Goldman Sachs first calculated implied per share values for our common stock at year end for each of the fiscal years 2007 to 2011 by applying enterprise value to one-year forward EBITDA multiples of 9.0x to 10.0x to estimates prepared by our management of fiscal years 2008 to 2012 EBITDA. Goldman Sachs then discounted those values and the value of any dividends to be paid up to the date of the future share price to April 16, 2007, using an equity discount rate of 10.0%. This analysis resulted in a range of illustrative values per share of Company common stock of $30.34 to $36.92.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative discounted cash flow analysis using the Company's management forecasts as of April 2007 to determine a range of implied present values per share of Company common stock. All cash flows were discounted to April 16, 2007, and terminal values were based upon perpetuity growth rates for cash flows in the year 2012 and beyond. In performing the illustrative discounted cash flow analysis, Goldman Sachs applied discount rates ranging from 8.0% to 9.0% to the projected unlevered free cash flows of the Company for the remainder of 2007 and calendar years 2008 to 2011. The discount rates applied by Goldman Sachs reflect the weighted average cost of capital of the Company based on the capital structure of the Company as of April 16, 2007. Goldman Sachs also applied perpetuity growth rates ranging from 1.75% to 2.75%. This analysis resulted in a range of illustrative values per share of Company common stock of $26.83 to $40.71.

Recapitalization Analysis.

Goldman Sachs analyzed an illustrative recapitalization transaction involving the Company and the theoretical value that our shareholders could receive in such a transaction. In the illustrative recapitalization transaction, the Company used after-tax proceeds from the sale of certain non-core assets to finance a special dividend to our shareholders in the range of $4.3 billion to $5.2 billion on December 31, 2007. In calculating the amount of the special dividend, Goldman Sachs assumed (i) that 88% of after-tax proceeds from asset sales by Clear Channel Outdoor would be distributed to the Company's shareholders, (ii) an annual recurring dividend of $0.75 per share, and (iii) the use of an existing $1.5 billion capital loss tax shield. Goldman Sachs then discounted the value of the special dividend to April 16, 2007, using discount rates ranging from 9.50% to 10.50%, which resulted in a present value of the special dividend to shareholders in the range of $8.24 to $9.89 per share. The theoretical post-recapitalization trading values of our shares were based upon estimated enterprise value to one-year forward EBITDA multiples of 9.5x to 10.5x and forecasts for the Company provided by our management as of April 2007 after giving effect to the asset sales. Goldman Sachs then calculated the implied per share future equity values for our common stock from 2007 to 2011, and then discounted those values and the value of any dividends to be paid up to the date of the future share price to April 16, 2007, using an equity discount rate of 10.0%. This analysis resulted in a range of illustrative values per share of Company common stock of $33.53 to $40.22.

Sum-of-the-Parts Analyses.

Goldman Sachs performed illustrative sum-of-the-parts analyses on the Company using certain financial forecasts for the Company and Clear Channel Outdoor provided by the management of the Company as of April 2007. In the first illustrative sum-of-the-parts analysis, Goldman Sachs calculated illustrative per share value indications for the Company assuming a spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor on June 30, 2007 and asset sales by the Company in addition to the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor. In the second illustrative sum-of-the-parts analysis, Goldman Sachs calculated illustrative per share value indications for the Company assuming a spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor on June 30, 2008 and asset sales by the Company in addition to the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor.

In the first illustrative sum-of-the-parts analysis, Goldman Sachs made the following assumptions: (i) a spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor closing on June 30, 2007, (ii) the sale of small market radio and television assets, (iii) the use of proceeds from the sale of small market radio and television assets and proceeds from inter-company debt repayments and/or new debt financings to finance a special dividend to shareholders of the Company in the range of $1.6 to $5.5 billion, or $3.28 to $10.97 per share, and (iv) an annual recurring dividend of $0.75 per share by the Company following the spin-off. The theoretical post spin-off illustrative values of Clear Channel Outdoor shares were based upon estimated enterprise value to 2007 estimated EBITDA multiples of 11.5x to 13.5x and forecasts for Clear Channel Outdoor provided by our management as of April 2007. The theoretical post spin-off trading values of shares of the Company common stock were based upon estimated enterprise value to 2007 estimated EBITDA multiples of 9.0x to 11.0x and forecasts for the Company provided by our management as of April 2007 after giving effect to the asset sales and the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor. Goldman Sachs then calculated the implied per share future equity values for Clear Channel Outdoor, the special dividend and the Company following the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor and then discounted those values to April 16, 2007, using a discount rate of 10.0%. This analysis resulted in a range of illustrative values per share of Company common stock of $32.55 to $40.97, inclusive of the values of Clear Channel Outdoor, the Company following the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor and the amount of the special dividend.

In the second illustrative sum-of-the-parts analysis, Goldman Sachs made the following assumptions: (i) a spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor closing on June 30, 2008, (ii) the sale of small market radio and television assets, (iii) the use of proceeds from the sale of small market radio and television assets and proceeds from inter-company debt repayments and/or new debt financings to finance a special dividend to shareholders of the Company in the range of $1.8 to $6.8 billion, or $3.52 to $13.66 per share, and (iv) an annual recurring dividend of $0.75 per share by the Company following the spin-off. The theoretical post spin-off illustrative values of Clear Channel Outdoor shares were based upon estimated enterprise value to 2008 estimated EBITDA multiples of 11.5x to 13.5x and forecasts for Clear Channel Outdoor provided by our management as of April 2007. The theoretical post spin-off trading values of shares of the Company common stock were based upon estimated enterprise value to 2008 estimated EBITDA multiples of 9.0x to 11.0x and forecasts for the Company provided by our management as of

S-20

April 2007 after giving effect to the asset sales and the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor. Goldman Sachs then calculated the implied per share future equity values for Clear Channel Outdoor, the special dividend and the Company following the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor and then discounted those values to April 16, 2007, using a discount rate of 10.0%. This analysis resulted in a range of illustrative values per share of Company common stock of $33.39 to $41.40, inclusive of the values of Clear Channel Outdoor, the Company following the spin-off of Clear Channel Outdoor and the amount of the special dividend.

Miscellaneous

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to the Company, Clear Channel Outdoor or the contemplated transaction.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of Goldman Sachs' providing its opinion to the Company's board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the $39.00 in cash per share to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of our common stock (other than the Rollover Shares) pursuant to the amended merger agreement. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of the Company, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasts.

The merger consideration was determined through arms-length negotiations between the Company, on the one hand, and the Sponsors, on the other hand, and was unanimously approved by our board of directors (excluding Messrs. Mark P. Mays, Randall T. Mays, L. Lowry Mays and B. J. McCombs who recused themselves from the deliberations). Goldman Sachs provided advice to our board of directors during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to the Company, its board of directors or the special advisory committee of its board of directors or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

As described above and in the proxy statement, Goldman Sachs' opinion to the Company's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Company's board of directors in making its determination to approve the amended merger agreement (See "The Merger - Reasons for the Merger" in the proxy statement as supplemented). The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Annex B to this supplement.

In addition, at the request of the board of directors of the Company, Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., an affiliate of Goldman Sachs, made available a financing package to the Sponsors in connection with the merger.

Goldman Sachs may also provide investment banking services to the Company and its affiliates and each of the Sponsors and their respective affiliates and portfolio companies in the future. In connection with the above-described investment banking services Goldman Sachs has received, and may receive, compensation.

Goldman Sachs is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman Sachs and its affiliates may provide such services to the Company and its affiliates and each of the Sponsors and their respective affiliates and portfolio companies, actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of the Company and the respective affiliates and portfolio companies of each of the Sponsors for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and at any time hold long and short positions of such securities. Affiliates of Goldman Sachs have co-invested with each of the Sponsors and their respective affiliates from time to time and such affiliates of Goldman Sachs have invested and may invest in the future in limited partnership units of affiliates of each of the Sponsors.

The board of directors of the Company selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger. Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated September 18, 2006, the Company engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with its consideration of a range of strategic alternatives. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, the Company has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee equal to approximately $49 million, the principal portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

UPDATE TO MERGER RELATED LITIGATION

The information below updates certain information presented in Merger Related Litigation beginning on page 64 of the proxy statement.

On January 30, 2007, Pioneer Investments Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH (Pioneer Investments), located in Munich, Germany and an affiliate of UniCredito Italiana S.p.A. of Milan, Italy, filed suit against the Company and its officers and directors for violations of Section 14(a)-9 of the Securities Exchange Act. The action Pioneer Investments Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH v. Clear Channel Communications, Inc., et al., Case No. SA-007-CA-0997, filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division (the Pioneer Federal Action), alleges the Company failed to disclose all relevant and material information in the proxy statement mailed to shareholders on February 1, 2007 in connection with the proposed merger. On March 9, 2007, the Company filed a motion to dismiss the Pioneer Federal Action on a number of grounds including the fact that the claims upon which Pioneer Investments seeks relief in federal court are already pending in a consolidated state court class action, of which Pioneer Investments is also a plaintiff. No hearing date has been scheduled for the motion to dismiss. Judge Royal Furgeson, who is the presiding judge for Alaska Laborers Employees Retirement Fund v.

Clear Channel Communications, Inc., et al., Case No. SA-07-CA-0042, filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division (the Alaska Fund Action) has requested that the Pioneer Federal Action be transferred to his court. See the proxy statement for a description of the Alaska Fund Action.

In February, 2007, the defendants in the Alaska Fund Action filed motions to dismiss the complaint filed in that action. On March 29, 2007, a hearing was held on defendants' motions to dismiss. At the March 29, 2007 hearing, the Court dismissed from the Alaska Fund Action the Merger Sub, the Fincos and the Sponsors. The Court also ordered the plaintiffs to file an amended complaint. To date, the plaintiffs have not filed an amended complaint.

The following putative class action complaints that were filed in the action currently pending in the District Court of Bexar County, Texas (the Bexar County Action), in connection with the merger have been voluntarily dismissed by the plaintiffs, Murphy v. Clear Channel Communications, Inc., et al. , No. 2006CI17647 (filed November 16, 2006), Manson v. Clear Channel Communications, Inc., et al. , No. 2006CI17656 (filed November 16, 2006), and Metzler Investment GmbH v. Clear Channel Communications, Inc., et al. , No. 2006CI18067 (filed November 28, 2006). The Bexar County Action, and the putative Consolidated Amended Class Action Petition filed in the Bexar County Action, remain pending.

Plaintiffs in the Bexar County Action have sought from the court a date for a hearing on a motion to temporarily enjoin the shareholder vote that is scheduled for May 8, 2007. In response to that request, the Court has scheduled for May 7, 2007 a hearing on plaintiffs' application for a temporary injunction.

In addition, at the request of the Board of Directors of the Company, Goldman Sachs Credit Partners L.P., an affiliate of Goldman, Sachs & Co., made available a financing package to the Investors in connection with a potential transaction.

We have provided and are currently providing certain investment banking services to THLee and its affiliates and portfolio companies, including having acted as financial advisor to Houghton Mifflin Holding Company, Inc., a former portfolio company of THLee, in connection with its sale in December 2006, as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner in connection with senior secured credit facilities (aggregate principal amount $5,000,000,000) in connection with the acquisition of Aramark Corporation by THLee acting together with a consortium of private equity companies and management in January 2007 and as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner in connection with senior secured credit facilities (aggregate principal amount $1,600,000,000) of Spectrum Brands, Inc., a portfolio company of THLee in April 2007. We also may provide investment banking services to the Company and its affiliates and each of the Investors and their respective affiliates and portfolio companies in the future. In connection with the above-described investment banking services we have received, and may receive, compensation.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman, Sachs & Co. and its affiliates may provide such services to the Company and its affiliates and each of the Investors and their respective affiliates and portfolio companies, actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of the Company and the respective affiliates and portfolio companies of each of the Investors for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and at any time hold long and short positions of such securities. Affiliates of Goldman, Sachs & Co. have co-invested with each of the Investors and their respective affiliates from time to time and such affiliates of Goldman, Sachs & Co. have invested and may invest in the future in limited partnership units of affiliates of each of the Investors.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company for the five years ended December 31, 2006 and for Outdoor for the two years ended December 31, 2006; Outdoor's Registration Statement on Form S-1, including the prospectus contained therein, dated November 10, 2005, relating to the Outdoor Class A Common Stock; certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company and Outdoor; certain other communications from the Company and Outdoor to their respective shareholders; and certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company prepared by the management of the Company, which included certain assessments with respect to the likelihood of achieving such forecasts for the Company and financial analyses and forecasts for Outdoor. We also have held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Outdoor regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Company and Outdoor. In addition, we have reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Shares and Outdoor Class A Common Stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Outdoor with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the broadcasting and outdoor advertising industries specifically and in other industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as we considered appropriate.

We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. In addition, we have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company, Outdoor or any of their respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative transaction that might be available to the Company. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Shares should vote with respect to such Transaction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by the holders of Shares (other than the Rollover Shares) pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

Very truly yours,
