Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statement or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

The Audit Committee and management of Home Solutions of America, Inc. (the Company) have concluded that due to the effects of reporting errors described below, they believe the Company's previously issued financial statements for the first two quarters of 2007 should not be relied upon.

On December 7, 2007, the Audit Committee of the Company received a letter from KMJ Corbin & Company LLP (KMJ Corbin), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, stating that they have concluded that the Company's previously issued quarterly consolidated financial statements for the periods ended March 31, 2007 and June 30, 2007, included in the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for such periods, should no longer be relied upon.

Specifically, in the letter and in subsequent conversations with Company management, KMJ Corbin noted that:

In connection with a consulting agreement between the Company and RG America, Inc., entered into on March 20, 2007, the Company incorrectly recorded certain accounts receivable, costs in excess of billings and accounts payable upon execution of the consulting agreement with a corresponding recognition of revenues; and

In connection with contracts with related parties, the Company incorrectly accrued construction costs prior to such costs being incurred. Such cost accruals improperly accelerated revenue recognition on the related contracts; and

The Audit Committee has discussed the matters raised by KMJ Corbin with representatives of that firm.

The Company intends to file restated financial statements for the periods ended March 31, 2007 and June 30, 2007 in future filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company is evaluating the effects of these matters on its internal control over financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures.

As required by Item 4.02(c) of Form 8-K, the Company has provided a copy of this report on Form 8-K to KMJ Corbin, and has requested KMJ Corbin to furnish the Company as promptly as possible a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether KMJ Corbin agrees with the statements made by the Company herein and, if not, stating those matters in which it does not agree. A copy of this letter is included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

As previously announced, the Company has delayed the filing of its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. The delay in filing is due to a previously announced ongoing Audit Committee investigation into related party transactions and other matters. The Company is working with the Audit Committee to complete the investigation and to file all required reports as soon as practicable.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, contains forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 under Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Forward-looking statements include statements with respect to our beliefs, plans, objectives, goals, expectations, anticipations, assumptions, estimates, intentions, and future performance, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may be beyond our control, and which may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be forward-looking statements. You can identify these forward-looking statements through our use of words such as may, will, can anticipate, assume, should, indicate, would, believe, contemplate, expect, continue, plan, point to, project, predict, could, intend, target, potential, and other similar words and future. Forward-looking statements may not be realized due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation, future economic, competitive and market conditions, regulatory framework, and future business decisions, and the other factors referenced in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which contains a list of specific risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by our forward-looking statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1.
