CAUTIONARY STATEMENT RELATED TO FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q includes certain forward-looking statements as defined within Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, relating to revenue, revenue composition, demand trends, future expense levels, trends in average headcount and gross margins, and the level of expected capital expenditures. Such forward-looking statements are based on the beliefs of, estimates made by, and information currently available to SM&A (the Company) management and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Any statements contained herein (including without limitation statements to the effect that the Company or management estimates, expects, anticipates, plans, believes, projects, contemplates, may, will, could, or would or statements concerning potential or opportunity or variations thereof or comparative terminology or the negative thereof) that are not statements of historical fact should be construed as forward-looking statements. The actual results of SM&A may vary materially from those expected or anticipated in these forward-looking statements. The realization of such forward-looking statements may be impacted by certain important unanticipated factors including those discussed in Risk Factors under Item 2, and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, at pages 10-14. Because of these and other factors that may effect SM&A's operating results, past performance should not be considered as an indicator of future performance and investors should not use historical results to anticipate results or trends in future periods. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. Readers should carefully review the risk factors described in this and other documents that SM&A files from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including subsequent Current Reports on Form 8-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Annual Reports on Form 10-K.

HOW TO OBTAIN SM&A SEC FILINGS

All reports filed by SM&A with the SEC are available free of charge via EDGAR through the SEC website at www.sec.gov. In addition, the public may read and copy materials filed by the Company with the SEC at the SEC's public reference room located at 450 Fifth St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. SM&A also provides copies of its Forms 8-K, 10-K, 10-Q, Proxy and Annual Report at no charge to investors upon request and makes electronic copies of its most recently filed reports available through its website at www.smawins.com as soon as reasonably practicable after filing such material with the SEC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2004 and 2003
(unaudited)

Note 1. Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

The consolidated financial statements included herein are unaudited; however, they contain all normal recurring accruals and adjustments that, in the opinion of management, are necessary to present fairly the consolidated financial position of SM&A at March 31, 2004, the consolidated results of our operations for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, and our cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003. Comprehensive income is equivalent to net income for the three month period ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

It should be understood that accounting measurements at interim dates inherently involve greater reliance on estimates than at year-end. The results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include footnotes and certain financial presentations normally required under generally accepted accounting principles. Therefore, these financial statements should be read in conjunction with our audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2003, included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 6, 2004.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2003, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 46, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. The Interpretation requires an investor with a majority of the variable interests in a variable interest entity to consolidate the entity and also requires majority and significant variable interest investors to provide certain disclosures. A variable interest entity is an entity in which the equity investors do not have a controlling interest or the equity investment at risk is insufficient to finance the entity's activities without receiving additional subordinated financial support from the other parties. This pronouncement requires the consolidation of variable interest entities created after January 31, 2003. Consolidation provisions apply for periods ending after March 15, 2004 for variable interest entities, other than special purpose entities, created prior to February 1, 2003.

In response to a number of comment letters and implementation questions, in December 2003 the FASB issued FIN No. 46(R), which delayed the effective date of FIN No. 46 for certain entities until March 31, 2004. We do not have any variable interest entities, including special purpose entities, that must be consolidated and therefore the adoption of the provision of FIN 46(R) did not have an impact on our financial position or results of operations.

Significant Accounting Policies

Revenue Recognition. We recognize revenue from services rendered when the following four revenue recognition criteria are met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, the selling price is fixed or determinable, and collection is reasonably assured. The majority of our services are provided under time and expenses billing arrangements and revenue is recognized on the basis of hours worked, plus other reimbursable contract costs incurred during the period. Revenue is directly related to the total number of hours billed to clients and the associated hourly billing rates. A limited amount of revenue is also derived from success fees, offered to clients as a pricing option, and recorded as revenue only upon attainment of the specified incentive criteria.

Success fees are not billable and revenue is not recorded until the client wins a contract.

Cash and Cash Equivalents. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Denominator for diluted income per common share	21,740	20,153

Note 3. Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has elected to follow APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, to account for options to purchase common stock of the Company issued pursuant to the Company's stock-based compensation plans. Under APB Opinion No. 25, no compensation cost is recognized because the exercise price of options granted under the Company's stock-based compensation plans is at least equal to at least the market price of the underlying stock on the date of grant. Had compensation costs for these plans been determined at the grant dates for awards under the alternative accounting method provided for in SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure-an Amendment to FASB Statement No. 123, net income and earnings per share, on a pro forma basis, would have been (in thousands except for per share information):

Note 4. Revolving Line of Credit

The Company has a revolving credit agreement which allows for borrowings up to $10.0 million at the prime rate minus one half of one percent (-0.50%) per annum or LIBOR plus two and one quarter percent (2.25%) per annum. The revolving credit agreement requires an annual renewal on April 30th. Borrowings under the revolving credit agreement are unsecured. The agreement requires the Company to comply with certain financial covenants pertaining to its tangible net worth, ratio of total liabilities to tangible net worth, and ratio of current assets to current liabilities (as defined in the agreement). The agreement also contains certain negative covenants which, among other things, restricts the Company's ability to incur additional indebtedness of more than $1.0 million in excess of the $10.0 million credit agreement and make capital expenditures in excess of $2.0 million without the prior written approval of the lender.

Note 5. Income Taxes

Our effective income tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003 was 41.0% and 19.8%, respectively. In March 2003, the Internal Revenue Service completed their examination of our income and payroll taxes for the calendar years 1998 through 2001. Based on the conclusion of the examination, we adjusted our tax accounts leading to an income tax adjustment of $0.05 per diluted share in the first quarter of 2003. Without the tax adjustment, the Company's effective income tax rate was 41.0%.

Note 6. Related Parties

The Company entered into a contract in April 2002 with ProView, a subsidiary of the Precept Group, for which one of the members of the Company's Board of Directors serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company has agreed to outsource its employee benefits administration to ProView. The contract value was determined through a review of prevailing market rates for such services. Under this contract, the Company paid $7,200 and $6,100 during the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

In June 2002, we entered into a right of offset and barter agreement with SummitJets, Inc. (SummitJets), which is owned by the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provided for the offset of the existing accounts receivable and accounts payable balances between the companies. After giving effect to the offset, SM&A was owed $114,000, which amounts SummitJets agreed to pay in the form of credits to use SummitJets aircraft. The $114,000 owed represents expenses incurred related to a former location sharing agreement for rent and related utilities. In June 2002, SummitJets moved into its own facilities and cancelled the existing location sharing agreement. During the three months ended March 31, 2003, total credits used were $48,000 that is included in Selling, General and Administrative Expenses and SummitJets paid the Company the remaining unused credits owed of $17,000 and the contract was terminated.

Note 7. Discontinued Operations

In 2002 and 2001, the Company sold and dissolved one of its business segments, respectively. The balance owed at March 31, 2004 of $1.2 million represents the remaining office lease commitments, net of subleases and estimated broker fees, over the remaining terms of the leases. During the three months ended March 31, 2004, the Company paid $196,000 net of sublease receipts, related to the leased property. The Company continues the process of identifying sub-lessees for our remaining leased property.

Table of ContentsItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

SM&A is one of the world's leading providers of competition management services (formerly known as proposal management services), and a leading provider of high-value performance assurance services (formerly known as program support services). Our more than 315 employees and consultants provide program management, systems engineering, and expert support to major industrial customers in the defense, homeland security, aerospace, information technology, and architect and engineering sectors. Since 1982, we have managed more than 820 proposals worth more than $270 billion for our clients and have achieved an 85% win rate on awarded contracts. We also provide systems engineering, program planning and other high-value technical support services to such high priority national programs as the Joint Strike Fighter program and America's missile defense efforts.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following table sets forth certain historical operating results (in thousands):

	For the three months ended March 31,
	2004	2003	Change $	Change %
Revenue	$ 18,487	$ 18,745	(258)	(1.4%)
Cost of revenue	10,144	10,712	(568)	5.3%
Gross margin	8,343	8,033	310	3.9%
Selling, general and administrative expenses	3,390	3,323	67	2.0%
Operating income	4,953	4,710	243	5.2%
Income tax expense	2,043	933	1,110	119.0%
Net income	$ 2,940	$ 3,778	(838)	(22.2%)

Three Months Ended March 31, 2004 Compared to Three Months Ended March 31, 2003

Revenue. Revenue decreased $258,000, or 1.4% to $18.5 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004 compared to $18.7 million for the same period of the prior year. Revenues from our top five customers decreased 10.1% to $14.4 million compared to $16.0 million for the same period of the prior year. We added ten new customers, which generated $1.2 million in revenue or 6.6% of total revenues.

The percentage of revenues from competition management services and performance assurance services was 62.2% and 37.8% for the three months ended March 31, 2004, respectively, compared to 44.9% and 55.1% for the same period of the prior year. This decrease in revenue and the change in revenue to competition management services from performance assurance services is due to the unusual number of proposals that were delayed or extended in 2003. These delays and extensions, while generating more competition management services revenues, led to delays in our ability to initiate work on performance assurance services in the second half of 2003 and into 2004. Due in part to these delays, we believe, based on our view of upcoming opportunities and our strong pipeline activity, that our revenues from performance assurance service will increase in the later half of this year.

The increase in growth from new customers is directly related to our hiring of more account executives, which has enabled us to focus on developing new markets outside of our traditional aerospace and defense concentration. We believe that this growth validates our strategy and conviction that our services are portable across multiple vertical markets.

Gross Margin. Gross margin increased $310,000, or 3.9%, to $8.3 million for the three month ended March 31, 2004 compared to $8.0 million for the same period of the prior year. As a percentage of revenue, gross margin increased to 45.1% for the three months ended March 31, 2004 compared to 42.9% for the same period of the prior year. The increase in gross margin and as a percentage of revenue is due to two factors. First, our competition management services revenue carries a slightly higher gross margin than our performance assurance services. As discussed above, the percentage of revenues from competition management services and performance assurance services was 62.2% and 37.8% for the three months ended March 31, 2004, respectively, compared to 44.9% and

Table of Contents

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (cont'd)

55.1% for the same period of the prior year. Second, we moderately increased our billing rates in June 2003, which affected new contracts entered into after June 2003.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses consist principally of salary and benefit costs for executive, sales and administrative personnel, professional services and other general corporate activities. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased $67,000, or 2.0%, to $3.4 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004, as compared to $3.3 million for the same period of the prior year. As a percentage of revenue, selling, general and administrative expenses increased to 18.3% for the three months ended March 31, 2004, as compared to 17.7% for the same period of the prior year. The increase in expenses is attributable to the increase in the number of account executives and staff to support and service our new and existing client base. Selling, general and administrative expenses were favorably impacted by our plan to hold periodic regional training events instead of holding a once-a-year company-wide offsite event. This change generated expense savings of $215,000 for the three months ended March 31, 2004 compared to the same period of the prior year.

Operating Income. Operating income increased $243,000, or 5.2% to $5.0 million for the three months ended March 31, 2004, compared to $4.7 million for the same period of the prior year. As a percentage of revenue, operating income increased to 26.8% for the three months ended March 31, 2004, as compared to 25.1% for the same period of the prior year. Operating income increased due to the increased gross margin offset by a nominal decrease in revenue and a nominal increase in selling, general and administrative expenses, as discussed above.

Income Tax Expense. Our effective income tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2004 was 41.0% compared to 19.8% for the same period of the prior year. In March 2003, the Internal Revenue Service completed their examination of our income and payroll taxes for the calendar years 1998 through 2001. Based on the conclusion of the examination, we adjusted our tax accounts leading to an income tax adjustment of $0.05 per diluted share in the first quarter of 2003. Without the tax adjustment, the Company's effective income tax rate would have been 41.0% and we would have earned $0.14 per diluted share in the first quarter of 2003.

Table of ContentsItem 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (continued)*Capital resources and liquidity

Our working capital increased to $27.4 million at March 31, 2004 from $23.8 million at December 31, 2003. In addition, our cash and cash equivalents increased to $20.2 million at March 31, 2004, from $17.7 million at December 31, 2003. Cash flow from operations provided $2.1 million during the three months ended March 31, 2004, compared to $933,000 for the same period during the prior year. Cash flow from financing activities provided $668,000 from the receipt of cash related to our employee stock purchase plan and stock option exercises, for the three months ended March 31, 2004, as compared to $80,000 for the same period prior year.

The Company has a revolving credit agreement which allows for borrowings up to $10.0 million at the prime rate minus one half of one percent (-0.50%) per annum or LIBOR plus two and one quarter percent (2.25%) per annum. The revolving credit agreement requires an annual renewal on April 30th. Borrowings under the revolving credit agreement are unsecured. The agreement requires the Company to comply with certain financial covenants pertaining to its tangible net worth, ratio of total liabilities to tangible net worth, and ratio of current assets to current liabilities (as defined in the agreement). The agreement also contains certain negative covenants which, among other things, restricts the Company's ability to incur additional indebtedness of more than $1.0 million in excess of the $10.0 million credit agreement and make capital expenditures in excess of $2.0 million without the prior written approval of the lender. At March 31, 2004, we had no outstanding borrowings under the line of credit with $10.0 million in availability. We believe we will be able to extend or replace the line of credit when it expires.

We believe we have sufficient working capital available under the line of credit that expires on April 30, 2004, which we plan to renew, and cash generated by continuing operations will be sufficient to fund operations for at least the next twelve months.

The following table illustrates the remaining contractual obligations outstanding as of March 31, 2004:

Contractual Obligations Payments Due By Period as of March 31, 2004

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the following factors should be considered carefully in evaluating our business and prospects.

Our business depends substantially on the defense industry.

Our competition management and performance assurance services business depends substantially on U.S. Government expenditures for defense products. Any decline in the future defense, information technology or homeland security procurement expenditures could effect the opportunities available to our clients and, indirectly, our business. A number of factors could contribute to such a decline in opportunities, including:

Loss of political support for current or increased levels of spending;

Changes of presidential administration, particularly changes from one political party to another, that typically result in a mass reordering of priorities that reduce new proposal activity for up to a year;

Threat scenarios evolving away from global conflicts to regional conflicts; and

Spending for ongoing operations, such as the war on terrorism, the occupation of Iraq, downward pressure on spending for procurement of new systems and research and development spending.

Cancellation of programs or emphasis on government shifting programs.

In the event expenditures for products of the type manufactured by our clients are reduced and not offset by other new programs or products, there will be a reduction in the volume of contracts or subcontracts to be bid upon by our clients and, as a result, a reduction in the volume of proposals we managed. Unless offset, such reductions could materially and adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition.

We rely on a relatively limited number of clients.

We derive a significant portion of revenue from a relatively limited number of clients. In 2003, our seven largest customers accounted for 91.8% of our revenue. Clients typically retain our services as needed on an engagement basis rather than pursuant to long-term contracts, and a client may terminate the engagement at any time without significant penalty. Moreover, there can be no assurance that existing clients will continue to engage us for additional assignments or do so at the same revenue levels. The loss of any significant client could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the level of services required by an individual client may diminish over the life of the relationship, and there can be no assurance we will be successful in establishing relationships with new clients as this occurs.

The markets in which we operate are highly competitive.

The market for competition management services in the procurement of government and commercial contracts for aerospace and defense work is a niche market with a number of competitors. We are the largest provider of such services and principally compete with the in-house resources of our clients. In addition, numerous smaller competition management companies compete in this highly specialized industry. With sufficient resources in the form of money and excellent talent with current security clearances, our competitors could erode our current market share, and such a reduction could materially and adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition.

We rely heavily upon our key senior management personnel and our ability to recruit and maintain skilled professionals.

Our success is highly dependent upon the efforts, abilities, and business generation capabilities and project execution of our three principal executive officers, our account executives, and senior staff such as our Vice President of Recruiting and Vice President of Operations. In particular, Steven S. Myers, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, Cathy L. Wood, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Corporate Secretary, and Bennett C. Beaudry, President and Chief Operating Officer have a significant role in our success. The loss of the services of these key individuals, for any reason, could materially and adversely affect our business, operating results and financial condition.

Our business involves the delivery of professional services and is highly labor-intensive. Our success depends largely on our general ability to attract, develop, motivate and retain highly skilled professionals. The loss of some or a significant number of our professionals and/or the inability to attract, hire, develop, train and retain additional skilled personnel could have a serious negative effect on us, including our ability to obtain and successfully complete important engagements and maintain or increase our revenue.

Quarterly results may fluctuate.

We may experience fluctuations in future quarterly operating results due to a number of factors, including the size, timing and duration of client engagements.

Our stock price is subject to significant volatility.

Our common stock was first publicly traded on January 29, 1998, after our initial public offering at $12.00 per share. Between January 29, 1998 and March 31, 2004, the closing sale price has ranged from a high of $31.13 per share to a low of $0.75 per share. The market price of our common stock could continue to fluctuate substantially due to a variety of factors, including:

Quarterly fluctuations in results of operations;

Adverse circumstances affecting the introduction or market acceptance of new services we offer;

Announcements of new services by competitors;

Loss of key employees;

Changes in the regulatory environment or market conditions affecting the defense and aerospace industry;

Changes in earnings estimates and ratings by analysts;

Lack of market liquidity resulting from a relatively small amount of public stock float;

Changes in generally accepted accounting principles;

Sales of common stock by existing holders; and

The announcement of proposed acquisitions and dispositions.

Principal shareholder has significant control.

At March 31, 2004, Steven S. Myers, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, beneficially owned or controlled approximately 24.29% of our outstanding common stock and will have the ability to control or significantly influence the election of directors and the results of other matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. This ownership concentration may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control and may adversely affect the ability of other holders of our common stock to pass shareholder resolutions and control our actions. Our board of directors is currently comprised entirely of individuals nominated with the approval of Mr. Myers.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Company currently has no instruments that are sensitive to market risk.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) as of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report on Form 10-Q. Based on this evaluation, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that these disclosure controls and procedures are effective and designed to ensure that the information required to be disclosed in our reports filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the requisite time periods.

While the Company's disclosure controls and procedures provide reasonable assurance that the appropriate information will be available on a timely basis, this assurance is subject to limitations inherent in any control system, no matter how well designed and administered.

Changes in Internal Controls

There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) identified in connection with the evaluation of our internal control performed during our last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 5. Other Information

The Company entered into a contract in April 2002 with ProView, a subsidiary of the Precept Group, for which one of the members of the Company's Board of Directors serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer. The Company has agreed to outsource its employee benefits administration to ProView. The contract value was determined through a review of prevailing market rates for such services. Under this contract, the Company paid $7,200 and $6,100 during the three months ended March 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

In June 2002, we entered into a right of offset and barter agreement with SummitJets, Inc. (SummitJets), which is owned by the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provided for the offset of the existing accounts receivable and accounts payable balances between the companies. After giving effect to the offset, SM&A was owed $114,000, which amounts SummitJets agreed to pay in the form of credits to use SummitJets aircraft. The $114,000 owed represents expenses incurred related to a former location sharing agreement for rent and related utilities. In June 2002, SummitJets moved into its own facilities and cancelled the existing location sharing agreement. During the three months ended March 31, 2003, total credits used were $48,000 that is included in Selling, General and Administrative Expenses and SummitJets paid the Company the remaining unused credits owed of $17,000 and the contract was terminated.
