Amendment to Credit Agreement

On June 23, 2006, Arch Coal, Inc. (the Company) entered into an amendment (the Credit Amendment) to its credit agreement, dated December 22, 2004 (the Credit Agreement) with the banks named in the Credit Agreement and PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent for the banks party thereto.

The purpose of the Credit Amendment was to change the pricing grid upon which the interest rate on borrowings under the credit facility is determined and to extend the maturity dated from December 22, 2009 to June 23, 2011. Prior to the Credit Amendment, the interest rate on borrowings under the credit facility was a floating rate based on LIBOR determined by reference to the Company's credit rating. As amended, the floating interest rate on borrowings is determined by reference to the Company's leverage ratio, as calculated in accordance with the Credit Amendment.

The Credit Amendment also revised certain negative covenants and other provisions to provide the Company with greater flexibility to pursue strategic investments and provided the Company the option to increase the maximum amount of the credit facility from $700.0 million to $800.0 million. The Company exercised its option concurrently with the closing of the Credit Amendment. Except as set forth in the Credit Amendment, the Credit Agreement remains in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

As of May 31, 2006, the Company had approximately $25.0 million and $40.3 million of borrowings and letters of credit, respectively, outstanding under the Credit Agreement.

Some of the banks under the Credit Agreement and/or their affiliates have or may have had various relationships with the Company and its subsidiaries involving the provision of a variety of financial services, including investment banking, underwriting and commercial banking services, including issuances of letters of credit, for which the financial institutions and/or affiliates receive customary fees, and, in some cases, out-of-pocket expenses.

The Company described the material terms of the Credit Agreement in Item 1.01 of its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on December 28, 2004, and incorporates that description herein by this reference, appropriately modified as set forth above.

The foregoing description is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Credit Amendment. Since the terms of the Credit Amendment may differ from the general information contained herein, you should rely on the actual terms of the Credit Amendment, which is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

Amendment to Receivables Securitization Program

On June 23, 2006, the Company also entered into an amendment (the Securitization Amendment) to its accounts receivable securitization program (the Receivables Program) increasing the size of the program from $100.0 million to $150.0 million and changing the payments on amounts funded under the Receivables Program. Prior to the Securitization Amendment, the Company paid fees at rates that varied with the Company's debt ratings. As amended, these fees will be determined based on rates that vary with the Company's leverage ratio, as calculated in accordance with the Securitization Amendment. Except as set forth in the Securitization Amendment, the Receivables Program remains in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

As of May 31, 2006, the Company had approximately $40.0 million and $56.1 million of borrowings and letters of credit, respectively, outstanding under the Receivables Program.

The Company described the material terms of the Receivables Program in Item 1.01 of its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on February 16, 2006, and incorporates that description herein by this reference, appropriately modified as set forth above.

The foregoing description is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the provisions of the Securitization Amendment. Since the terms of the Securitization Amendment may differ from the general information contained herein, you should rely on the actual terms of the Securitization Amendment, which is filed with this report as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated by reference herein.
